Patrolman Spotted Car —Pair Gives Robbery as Motive — Got $17 — Girl Joined in Shootings.

John Edwin Meyer, a former convict, and 13-year-old Donna Marie Stone were arrested early today near Midland, Tex., and admitted killing four persons, three of them from St. Clair county, Illinois.

The Texas Highway Patrol said the pair signed statements admitting the murders of George Ballard, 47, of 121 Bethesda street, St. Clair county; his daughter, Carol, 10; Miss Margaret Wernicker, 1801 South Seventy-fourth street, St. Clair county, and Lee DeKraai, Ottumwa, Ia.

Robbery was given as the motive for the killings, although Meyer and the Stone girl got only $17 from all four victims. The Ballards were shot Wednesday near Hooker lake in St. Clair county. Miss Wernicker, who was kidnaped from her home Wednesday night, was killed between Thayer and Alton in Oregon county, Mo.

Miss Wernicker's body was found in a field eight miles south of Alton about 12:30 p.m. today by Missouri Highway patrolmen and deputies from the Oregon county sheriff's office. The field was described as two miles west of the junction of county Route A and Missouri Route 19. Searchers followed directions given by Meyer and relayed by Texas authorities.

Hitchhiker Killed.

DeKraai, a hitchhiker, was murdered on a country road between Midland and Big Spring, Tex. The Stone girl led police to the body. Sgt. Billy Smith of the Texas Highway Patrol said Donna Marie and Meyer admitted they each shot DeKraai twice.

The pair offered no resistance when Patrolman Jack Reeves of the highway patrol stopped them in an automobile they had stolen Wednesday night from St. Clair county. Reeves recognized the car from a police broadcast.

Meyer and the girl appeared relieved that their flight was over. Police had identified them yesterday as suspects in the Ballard murders and the abduction of Miss Wernicker.

Meyer, 32, a former neighbor of Donna Marie in a Chicago apartment building, said, "I guess I'm glad it's over." He offered to "take the rap myself" because "I don't want that kid getting any of the blame."

Has Prison Record.

The thin, long-haired Meyer was wan and unshaven. He told police he served 18 months in a Nebraska prison for automobile theft and two years in Minnesota for child desertion. Police said he is divorced and the father of five children.

Police said Meyer and the girl appeared calm in relating events of the past few days. They quoted Meyer as saying, "I don't know why I did it. I feel miserable about the whole thing."

In a joint statement, Meyer and Donna Marie told of killing the Ballards after they saw the man and his daughter fishing in Hooker lake. They were after money and the Ballard car, the killers stated.

They found only $1 in Ballard's possession, however, and were unable to start his car.

They then walked to Graham's house, about five blocks away. They abducted Miss Wernicker and left in Graham's car.

The statement said the pair took Miss Wernicker into a field in Oregon county and tied her hands.

Donna Marie shot the woman twice, then Meyer "finished her off" with two more slugs, the statement said.

Then they buried the body in a field.

The girl said they picked up DeKraai in the Dallas Fort Worth area yesterday. The hitchhiker was asleep when Meyer reached over and shot him in the head, she said.

"We both thought he had some money, but he didn't have a penny," she told police.

Donna Marie said she left the home of her grandparents, with

RUSSIAN A-TEST LIKELY TO SPEED U.S. DECISION

Kennedy Expected to Issue Order Early Next Week for Resumption of Nuclear Experiments.

NEW BLASTS MAY BE UNDERGROUND

Administration Also Considers Relaxing Secrecy to Give Public More Information on Weapons.

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2 (AP)—Russia's explosion of a nuclear test device in central Asia was expected today to hasten a decision by President Kennedy on resumption of United States nuclear weapons testing.

The White House announced late yesterday the first Soviet nuclear explosion known to this country since Russia, the United States and Britain declared moratoriums and began their test ban conference at Geneva almost three years ago.

The 35-word White House announcement said:

"The Soviet Union today (Friday) has conducted a nuclear test in the general area of Semipalatinsk in central Asia. The device tested had a substantial yield in the intermediate range. It was detonated in the atmosphere."

Speculation On Blast.

Officials said they had no way of knowing immediately what kind of device the Soviets exploded. The magnitude of the blast, estimated to be somewhere between 20,000 tons and 500,000 tons of equivalent TNT force, was sufficiently large to warrant speculation that they were testing components of Premier Khrushchev's much boasted superbomb. But the superbomb, according to the Soviet Premier's statements, would have a force of up to 100,000,000 tons and the actual explosion was far below that level.

The White House gave no information on how the explosion was detected, but officials indicated that the initial evidence was obtained through devices that are sensitive to earth and atmospheric shock waves set off by nuclear bursts. Presumably, as radioactivity in the atmosphere is measured and analyzed, further information will become available to the Government about the nature of the explosion.

Informed officials now consider it likely that Mr. Kennedy will make a decision early next week and that it will be to start up United States testing again. The last United States test explosions were held in the fall of 1958.

Symington Comment.

Senator Stuart Symington (Dem.), Missouri, said at Kansas City that the United States must and will resume nuclear testing and will continue to increase defense spending.

He said the Russian test blast is evidence the Russians have been lying about ceasing their

NEW RUSSIAN NOTES ON BERLIN ARE SENT TO U.S., BRITAIN AND FRANCE

MOSCOW, Sept. 2 (AP). THE Soviet Government sent new notes today to the United States, Britain and France on the Berlin crisis.

The contents were not immediately made public, but it was understood they replied to notes the Western powers delivered Aug. 26. In these, the Allies warned the Kremlin any interference with Western access to West Berlin would have "most serious consequences."

The Russians sent their replies today by messengers to the embassies concerned.

FORCING WEST TO TALK GIVEN AS KHRUSHCHEV AIM

British Leftists Report New Tests Are Intended to Shock Allies Into Action.

By SEYMOUR TOPPING

MOSCOW, Sept. 2 — Soviet Premier Khrushchev was quoted yesterday as declaring that he had decided to resume testing of nuclear weapons in order to shock the Western powers into negotiations on Germany and disarmament.

He gave this explanation to Sir Leslie Plummer and Honni Zilliacus, two left-wing members of the British Labor party, in a three-hour interview Thursday at his dacha near Yalta on the Black sea.

There had been no announcement here up to early today of the Soviet nuclear test in the atmosphere over central Asia, disclosed in a White House statement in Washington.

Plummer, who was reached at Yalta by telephone, quoted Khrushchev as saying that he felt it was only by such threats that the Western powers would be compelled to enter into East-West talks.

Merging of Discussions.

By taking a tough line, Khrushchev said, he hoped to make the Atlantic alliance agree to merging the discussions at Geneva on a nuclear test ban treaty with negotiations for general and complete disarmament.

The United States and Britain rejected this Soviet proposal in the Geneva talks on the ground that it would delay an agreement on a test ban treaty.

Plummer and Zilliacus were the first Westerners to interview the Soviet Premier since Moscow announced that it intended to resume testing with the object of developing a superbomb with an explosive force of 100,000,000 tons of TNT.

Plummer said Khrushchev, in addition to complaining about the West's attitude toward negotiations on Germany and disarmament, asserted that the United States and Britain had failed to discourage France from going ahead with nuclear testing.

'I Have Had Enough.'

When the British parliamentarians suggested to Khrushchev that the Soviet resumption of testing would cause alarm, the Soviet Premier was quoted as replying, "I knew it would but I have had enough. I am going to do something about it. We are not going to go on with the present situation."

Western observers here were puzzled by Khrushchev's assertion that the Soviet renewal of nuclear testing was needed to force the United States and its allies into negotiations on Berlin and Germany. President Kennedy and Secretary of State Dean Rusk, already have de-

SOVIET DECISION TO TEST BRINGS US TO BRINK OF WAR, NEHRU SAYS

He Regrets Move — Nkrumah Terms It a Shock — Proposes New Kennedy-Khrushchev Talks.

BELGRADE, Sept. 2 (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru told the conference of non-aligned nations today the Soviet decision to resume nuclear testing increased the danger of war.

The Indian leader said he deeply regrets the Russian decision, observing that it will permit other countries also to resume testing.

All this, he said, "brings us to the brink of war."

President Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana, who spoke before Nehru, said of yesterday's Russian test explosion:

"It is a shock for me and for you too. This shock shows what a big danger humanity is facing."

Nkrumah, who came here from a visit to Moscow, urged President Kennedy and Soviet Premier Khrushchev to meet again and discuss their disputes.

Nkrumah offered his African capital, Accra, for such a meeting.

Approaches Differ.

While Nehru and Nkrumah both attacked the Soviet tests, their general approach to the world crisis was different.

Nkrumah put emphasis on a fight against colonialism. No settlement of the great problem of war and peace is possible unless colonialism is eliminated, the African leader declared.

Nehru said the present world crisis is such that colonialism is overshadowed. He indicated he considered that Germany and disarmament are much more crucial. He received thunderous applause at the end of his 55-minute speech.

"We must look at things in perspective," Nehru said. "Of course we stand for anti-imperialis and anti-colonialism and we continue to do so, but the point arises that, at this particular crisis, what will we do?"

Powers Must Negotiate.

The big powers must negotiate "because the future of the whole race is at stake," he declared.

"The United Nations should consider this matter and see what it can do about the matter," Nehru said.

On Germany and Berlin, Nehru said:

"There are two separate entities—West Germany and East Germany, a fact of life. You cannot ignore it.

"West Berlin is closely allied to West Germany. They have their routes of access and Khrushchev himself has indicated that access will not be limited. If that is guaranteed by all concerned, one of the major causes of conflict will be removed."

Nkrumah has often reflected Soviet views on international affairs and his criticism of the nuclear test was something of an exception. He ran closer to form in backing several Soviet ideas on Berlin and Germany, and he did not criticize Moscow outright for resuming tests. He

30-DAY OUTLOOK: ABOVE NORMAL RAIN IN MIDWEST

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2 (AP)—The Weather Bureau said yesterday its 30-day outlook for September calls for temperatures to average above seasonal normals in the eastern half of the country with greatest departures in the Northeast. The bureau said:

"Below normal temperatures are predicted west of the Continental Divide except for above normal in coastal California.

"Precipitation is expected to exceed normal over the Midwest and Pacific Northwest. Subnormal amounts are indicated for the Northeast, middle Atlantic states, Gulf coast and far Southwest, with near normal elsewhere."

WEBSTER GROVES FACTORY BURNS; $100,000 LOSS

Men, Equipment From 6 Communities Fight Blaze — 3 Firemen Overcome by Smoke.

(Picture on Page 3A)

A spectacular fire last night destroyed the hardboard fabricating plant of the Midwest Manufacturing Co., 24 Allen avenue, Webster Groves. Loss was estimated at $100,000.

Huge clouds of smoke attracted a large crowd of spectators from the nearby Gore-Lockwood shopping district and flames for a time threatened commercial buildings on the west side of Gore avenue.

Fire-fighting equipment and men from six municipalities fought the flames and three firemen were treated for smoke inhalation.

The fire, of undetermined origin, was discovered at 7:35 p.m. by a fireman of nearby Webster Groves Engine Company No. 1, at 130 West Lockwood avenue.

Flames fanned by a brisk south wind spread rapidly through the one-story brick structure and fire departments of Maplewood, Brentwood, Shrewsberry, Rock Hill and Glendale were summoned. The fire was brought under control at about 10 p.m.

The building that was destroyed was about 100 feet square and housed punch press and shaping equipment and was used also for storage. A second building of the Midwest Co., on the west, received minor damage.

A water main at Gore and Lockwood burst and temporarily cut off one of several hose lines.

Firemen suffering smoke inhalation were William P. McGrath and Haney Ledbetter of Webster Groves and Ray Heidbrier of Maplewood. McGrath was taken to St. Joseph Hospital, Kirkwood, and Heidbrier to St. Louis County Hospital. Ledbetter was treated at the scene and returned to duty.

John Kreilich, Midwest Co. secretary, said the loss was covered by insurance.

BUILDING EMPTIED BY BOMB HOAX — ALL BUT U.S. COURT

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 2 (AP)—A witness collapsed on the stand in a tax case in the court of United States District Judge Leon R. Yankwich. The judge sent a bailiff for aid. The bailiff returned, amazed. "The building's empty," he said.

He was right. The 17-story Federal building in downtown Los Angeles was evacuated yesterday after a caller reported seven bombs had been hidden in the building.

An alert was sounded through the building, and 2200 employes hurried to the street. Somehow the alarm didn't reach the courtroom.

The witness turned out to have merely fainted. The bomb threat turned out to be a hoax.

TAPE TROUBLES CAUSE SWAYZE TO SWEAR ON RADIO

NEW YORK, Sept. 2 (AP)—Broadcasting sources reported today that pre-show technical difficulties were responsible for the profanity aired on the American Broadcasting Co.'s John Cameron Swayze news show last night.

About midway through his radio broadcast, Swayze came up with a sentence obviously not included in his script. Some of the stations carrying the show cut it off, others let it continue until the ABC network itself finally cut off the broadcast.

ABC spokesmen declined comment on the incident, but it was learned that in putting the broadcast on audio tape, technical difficulties were encountered which required Swayze to start his show over several times.

At one point, it was learned, the broadcaster became exasperated and that was when the profanity was recorded — inadvertently.

With the difficulties ironed out finally, the show was ready for broadcast—except that the part of the tape containing the profanity hadn't been erased and got on the air.

TRAFFIC DEATHS CLIMB TO 84 AS HOLIDAY BEGINS

CHICAGO, Sept. 2 (AP)—There were 84 traffic deaths in the first hours of the long Labor day holiday weekend. In addition two persons died in boating accidents and three from miscellaneous causes, a total of 89 dead. There were three highway deaths in Illinois and Missouri.

The National Safety Council had warned that by midnight Monday there could be as many as 420 persons dead on the highways. The 78-hour period for holiday statistics began at 6 p.m. yesterday.

In last year's three-day Labor Day holiday, 415 persons were killed in traffic accidents. In other accidental deaths at that time, 28 died in boating mishaps, 83 persons drowned and 90 others lost their lives in miscellaneous accidents for an over-all total of 616.

For comparative purposes, the Associated Press made a survey for a 78-hour non-holiday weekend, from 6 p.m. Friday, Aug. 18, to midnight Monday, Aug. 21. The count showed 390 traffic deaths, 14 in boating accidents, 47 persons drowned and 97 others who lost their lives in miscellaneous accidents, for a total of 548.

INQUIRY OPENS IN AIR CRASH IN WHICH 78 DIED

Possibility That Plane Disintegrated Before Coming Down Hasn't Been Ruled Out.

CHICAGO, Sept. 2 (AP)—Federal investigating groups studied a mass of evidence today seeking the cause of the crash of the Trans World Airlines Constellation that killed 78 persons yesterday. Officials did not rule out the possibility that the airliner disintegrated while still in the air.

"We can't afford to rule out anything," said Melvin N. Gough, safety director of the Civil Aeronautics Board, when he was asked if sabotage was being considered.

Gough said it was significant, but he did not say precisely how, that one piece of the plane's tail was 200 to 300 feet from the rest of the wreckage.

Gough said there was nothing to indicate that the plane exploded in the air before it crashed into a cornfield near suburban Hinsdale four minutes after taking off from Midway Airport at 2 a.m. Friday. All aboard, 73 passengers and 5 crewmen, died in the flaming wreckage.

It was the nation's third worst United States commercial plane accident and the worst involving a single commercial plane.

Among the victims were 29 children. Three families were wiped out, one of seven persons and two others of six and five respectively. It was an all-tourist class flight.

Members of a full-scale investigation headed by the CAB and the Federal Aviation Agency considered the widely scattered debris, witness accounts, operations reports and detailed analysis of the crash scene seeking clues to the disaster.

RAGWEED POLLEN COUNT HITS 300, HIGH FOR SEASON

A ragweed polen count of 300 today added to the discomfort of 100,000 hay fever sufferers in the St. Louis area. The count was the highest of the season to date.

The ragweed season opened in mid-August and will end about Sept. 15, with the peak expected this weekend.

An allergist said the pollen count might go higher if warm and windy weather continues. However, the Weather Bureau predicted scattered showers tonight and tomorrow, with lower temperatures.

The pollen count is the number of pollen particles in a cubic yard of air in a 24-hour period.

CARRIER MAY GO TO SEA, ADMIRAL TELLS ITS CREW

NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 2 (UPI)—The commander of the Atlantic Fleet Naval Air Force surprised the crew of the aircraft carrier Forrestal yesterday when he told the men they might be putting to sea next Tuesday instead of remaining for an overhaul.

V. Adm. Frank O'Beirne made the announcement as he presented an efficiency pennant to the ship's 3000 crewmen. Capt. Donald M. White, commander of the carrier, indicated he had no warning of the possible change.

The 60,000-ton vessel was due to leave a pier at Norfolk for a routine overhaul in nearby Portsmouth.

O'Beirne said plans were indefinite, but he said the overhaul could be canceled for sea duty. He said no more.

Snow at Yellowstone Park.

CODY, Wyo., Sept. 2 (AP)—Wind-driven snow forced closing of the east and north gates to Yellowstone national park last night. Six inches of snow was reported at Dunraven Pass, between Canyon Village and Tower Falls, and two at Sylvan Pass. The Wyoming Highway Patrol said roads throughout the park were generally impassable with a coating of ice and snow.

Grandma Moses, Almost 101, Plays Artful Trick on Doctor

HOOSICK FALLS, N. Y., Sept. 2 (AP)—Grandma Moses, who will be 101 years old Thursday, hid her doctor's stethoscope because he would not let her paint while she is in a rest home.

"You take me back to Eagle Bridge (Grandma's home) and you'll get back your stethoscope," Mrs. Anna Mary Robertson Moses insisted.

Dr. Clayton E. Shaw barred the paints while Grandma is in Hoosick Falls Health Center. The doctor said if she had them, the renowned primitive artist would use them but that "she's going to get a complete rest."

Grandma gave back the stethoscope.

EAST GERMANY OBJECTS TO U.S. REINFORCING OF BERLIN GARRISON

American Officials Ignore Note — Reds Charge Movement of 1500 Troops Violated Sovereignty.

BERLIN, Sept. 2 (UPI) — Communist East Germany announced today that it had protested against the reinforcement of the United States Army garrison in Berlin by 1500 combat troops.

United States officials said they would pay no attention to the protest note and would not answer it because the United States does not recognize the East German regime.

They ignored what appeared to be an East German claim to the right to rule on American use of the routes to isolated West Berlin through East German territory.

The protest, reported by the official East German news agency ADN, said the movement on the 110-mile Helmstedt-Berlin highway Aug. 20 of 1500 American soldiers violated East German sovereignty and was a "misuse" of the highway.

The East Germans said they would not attempt to control Western allied military traffic "until a peace treaty is signed."

But they said "This is on the condition that these routes are not misused for purposes in direct contradiction to agreements on Germany's postwar development."

ADN, which released the note early today, said it was transmitted to the United States ambassador in Prague, Czechoslovakia, last Saturday.

United States officials said the United States had the right of unrestricted access to Berlin. They said the United States accepted no East German claim to control Western traffic or limit it in any way.

The East German note said the United States reinforced its garrison at a time when the "foreign occupation regime" in Berlin should be eradicated.

It said in any event there was no need to reinforce the garrison because the Aug. 13 closing of the East-West Berlin border did not affect the interests of the United States.

The note said the troop reinforcements, which were ordered into the beleaguered city by President Kennedy, violated the Tehran, Yalta and Potsdam pacts.

The Communists charged that the access routes were being used as a cover for German militarists and "revanchists" revenge seekers).

The New York Herald Tribune-Post-Dispatch Special Dispatch.

The United States command in Berlin warned the Russians last night that it is difficult to restrain American troops from returning gunfire falling in the United States sector of West Berlin.

In a message to Soviet military headquarters in East Berlin, the American command accused East German border guards of "gravely violating" the United States sector boundary with the salvos while firing at refugees trying to reach West Berlin.

Maj. Gen. Albert Watson II, United States commandant, demanded that Soviet commandant Col. A. V. Solvyav bring the "criminal" East Germans acts to a halt.

"You are well aware of the difficulty of restraining our personnel from returning such gunfire. I urge you to take the necessary measures to control the criminal and irresponsible conduct of the East German border guards."

FRANCIS S. LORENZ TAKES OVER AS ILLINOIS TREASURER

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 2 (AP)—Francis S. Lorenz of Chicago succeeded Joseph D. Lohman as Illinois State Treasurer yesterday. In doing so he engaged in one of the state's biggest transfers of fiscal responsibility.

Lorenz signed receipts for more than a billion dollars in cash and securities after Lohman broke the seal on the state vault. He also signed receipts for more than $600,000,000 in state cash in banks.

Lohman gave up the office to which he was elected on the Democratic ticket in 1958 to become dean of the department of criminology at the University of California at Berkeley.

The first report will be made public Sept. 9, it was announced yesterday. It will deal with discrimination in voting. Other reports will cover discrimination in education, housing, employment and in the administration of justice.

clared their readiness to negotiate and it was public knowledge that the Western powers were consulting on the timing and method of an approach to the Soviet Union.

It was the contention of senior Western diplomats here that Khrushchev's decision on nuclear testing was one of a series of Soviet military measures undertaken with the aim of pressuring the Western powers into accepting his terms for a Berlin settlement.

These diplomats take the position that Khrushchev had risked the alienation of opinion in the uncommitted countries only because he believed that important diplomatic advantages would be gained at the conference table.

Message to Belgrade.

In a message last night to the leaders of the uncommitted countries meeting in Belgrade Khrushchev declared the Soviet Union "continued to regard the ideas of peaceful co-operation and co-existence as the basis of Soviet foreign policy."

Without mentioning the Soviet decision to resume testing Khrushchev said, "Many events and facts today instill great alarm in the hearts of the people and make them wonder where the world is going."

Khrushchev added, "This alarming situation has been created by the increasingly active forces of aggression and revenge whose actions now differ little from what happened 20 years ago on the eve of the terrible war visited upon mankind."

The Soviet Premier did not cite the name of any country in his accusation.

Khrushchev said "the peace-loving states cannot but take measures to put out the remaining sources of war danger and curb the forces of aggression and revenge."

Comment by Zilliacus.

Zilliacus, also interviewed by telephone at Yalta, said Khrushchev had indicated a desire to negotiate a Berlin settlement.

The Soviet leader was said to have stated that he would not object to the transfer of the headquarters of the United Nations or one of its auxiliary bodies to West Berlin. He said this would represent a guarantee of a free city status for West Berlin after the conclusion of a German peace treaty.

KENNEDY RESTS, KEEPS POSTED ON BLAST REACTION

HYANNISPORT, Mass., Sept. 2 (AP)—President Kennedy enjoyed the company of his family today, but none of the holiday weekend comfort of a man away from his problems. White House communications kept him abreast of world reaction to Russia's nuclear explosion.

No schedule was announced for the Chief Executive. Associates said he made no definite plans for the start of his Labor Day weekend.

His program from now until Tuesday morning, when he plans to return to Washington, hinged on developments in the wake of the Soviets' test blast over central Asia yesterday.

Weather permitting, Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy have cruised on Nantucket sound every day of every weekend he has spent here with his vacationing family. They were expected to board the 52-foot Marlin again today, if the word from abroad permitted.

KENNEDY ORDERS REPORT ON MIDWEST RAIL DISPUTE

HYANNISPORT, Mass., Sept. 2 (AP)—President Kennedy ordered emergency board action yesterday in an effort to settle a Midwest railroad dispute with the Conductors Union.

Wage issues already have been solved through meditation, acting White House press secretary Andrew Hatcher said, but rules changes have kept the controversy alive. The dispute is between the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Pacific Railroad and the Pullman Co. on one hand and the Order of Railway Conductors and Brakemen on the other.

The board has 30 days to report. Under terms of Mr. Kennedy's executive order, operating conditions must remain the same for another 30 days after the board reports, unless both sides agree.

urged the conference to pass a "firm resolution calling on the great powers" to sign a German peace treaty immediately.

Nkrumah said all nations should recognize the existence of two German states, accepting the "present facts of the situation."

He said West Germany must withdraw from the North Atlantic alliance and East Germany from the Warsaw pact. "This is the only way Germans themselves will be able to solve issues."

Berlin should present no difficulty, he said, because that rights of access had been guaranteed.

Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia said the non-aligned countries could influence the big powers because "the judgment which we make of their moves will bring them satisfaction or disappointment." He also urged the small powers to help preserve the United Nations.

"We have the most to lose if it is relegated to a niche in history like the League of Nations," said Selassie, who a quarter of a century ago went before the old League in vain appeals for aid after Italy invaded Ethiopia.

Calls Colonialism Dead.

"Colonialism, in the classic sense, is finished," he said. "The last vestiges are being eliminated. The system is out of date."

But he said the non-aligned countries must look beyond to problems created by the end of colonialism, fight against economic exploitation and for economic freedom.

"In our haste to escape one form," he said, "we need not attract another, more oppressive form of control."

Prime Minister U Nu of Burma, in a speech that balanced the criticism of others against the West and colonialism, termed the threat of war the over-riding issue.

He urged the former colonies meeting here not to create new tensions by pursuing anti-colonialism too far.

Indonesian President Sukarno accused the Western powers of failing to realize that the colonial era had ended. He and other speakers blamed the West for continuing colonial policies.

BRAZIL DEPUTIES VOTE GOULART LIMITED POWERS

Vice President Returns to Country — Action Would Make Him a Figurehead.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Sept. 2 (AP)—The Brazilian Chamber of Deputies gave overwhelming approval today to a constitutional amendment which would install Joao Goulart as president with limited powers. The measure now goes to the Senate.

Deputies meeting in the hinterland capital of Brasilia voted 233 to 55 after an all-night session to set up a parliamentary form of government which would make the leftist Vice President a figurehead and vest the top power in a prime minister.

The Senate must give the measure a two-thirds majority before it is adopted. Then it is up to Goulart to decide whether to accept or reject the conditions. Congressional leaders report he has already agreed.

Goulart was proclaimed chief of state by 50,000 cheering followers last night as his plane arrived from Uruguay at Porto Alegre, capital of Rio Grande do Sul, his home state and political stronghold in the south.

Confers With Leaders.

Goulart conferred with local leaders there, apparently making plans to name a cabinet and to try to make peace with military leaders in the north who oppose him.

Goulart still faced stubborn opposition, however, from the nation's three military chiefs who insist they will not accept the controversial leader under any conditions.

Heads of Brazil's army, navy and air force had ordered the armed forces to attack the pro-Goulart Third Army in Rio Grande do Sul, but there were no reports of significant military action.

The National Telecommunications Council announced over the government radio that Brazilian Communist leader Luis Carlos Prestes had been named commander of a militia unit in Rio Grade do Sul.

Cunha Mello, first secretary of the Senate, said in Brasilia a caucus of congressional and party leaders had approved plans for Goulart's inauguration at 1 p.m. Monday.

Officials said the plans were based on the assumption that by then Congress would have completed legislation to set up the parliamentary system in Brazil. Under President Janio Quadros, who resigned a week ago, Brazil's system of government was similar to that of the United States.

Senate President Moura Andrade told the Senate last night that Goulart had agreed to the constitutional change. There had been hints that Goulart's supporters in Congress might try to block it on the ground that he was already president with the right to full powers.

Goulart, who was on a trip to Red China and other Far Eastern points when Quadros resigned, hastened to Paris last Sunday to await developments. He flew to Montevideo, Uruguay, Thursday, then arrived at Porto Alegre last night.

Crowds greeted the rich, 42-year-old ex-cowboy when he arrived. Onlookers chanted "Jango, Jango" (Goulart's nickname) as he drove from the airport to the central plaza.

Deafening Cheers.

The cheers grew deafening when Goulart made a brief appearance on a balcony of Piratini palace, residence of Leonel Brizola, governor of Rio Grande do Sul and Goulart's brother-in-law.

Despite the report that Goulart had agreed to the constitutional amendment, Brizola broadcast an appeal to Congress to turn it down. The Governor said the military cut telephone communications between Porto Alegre and Brasilia last night and "the constitutional president, Goulart, has no knowledge of such important decisions."

Experts Say Russia May Have Tested Trigger for Superbomb

Another Theory Is That Blast Was Step in Development of New Warhead for Missile.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2 (AP) —Russia's first nuclear weapons test in three years has caused speculation that Soviet scientists tested a component for one of the superbombs about which Premier Khrushchev has boasted.

The White House announcement yesterday described the blast as "in the intermediate range." This would be, according to United States scientists, a blast with a force ranging from the equivalent of 20,000 tons of TNT up to 500,000 tons.

Khrushchev, in announcing a resumption of nuclear weapons tests Wednesday, said Russian scientists now would proceed to develop a 100 megaton bomb, equivalent to 100,000,000 tons of TNT.

United States experts do not consider the size of the latest Soviet blast significant. They said an explosion in the intermediate range could be used to test components essential to the successful development of huge nuclear weapons. Smaller nuclear weapons are used to trigger the high yield blasts.

Super Warhead.

Another theory, expressed by Dr. Ralph Lapp, is that the blast may have been a step in the development of a super warhead for a Minuteman-type intercontinental ballistic missile.

Lapp, a nuclear physicist who is not associated with the Government but makes a close study of nuclear weapons, also speculated that the Russians may have exploded the device before or shortly after they announced their intention to resume nuclear tests.

The blast, Lapp said, may have been a test of a trigger or some other component of a one or two megaton missile warhead.

He explained: "With the American U-2 (spy plane) activities already known, and the Samos (spy-in-the-sky) satellite pending, the Russians are no longer secure with their huge liquid-fueled I.C.B.Ms.

"Therefore I believe the Russian generals are now convinced they will have to replace their large-yield I.C.B.M.s with smaller ones, like our Minuteman—but that they intend to arm them with a super warhead."

Vulnerable to Attack.

Lapp said he estimates the warheads on Russia's big liquid-fueled I.C.B.M.s range up to eight megatons. He said he believes the Russians feel these big missiles are vulnerable to surprise attack.

The American Minuteman is a three-stage, solid fuel I.C.B.M. which Lapp estimates will carry a warhead with a punch equal to 500,000 tons of TNT. It is designed to be fired from concrete underground silos or moved about on railroad flatcars.

Lapp said the Minuteman probably would be fired at Russian cities in response to Soviet attack and would be effective against those targets.

However, he said Russia's targets in a surprise attack would be Atlas, Titan and Minuteman sites in an effort to prevent any United States counterattack.

To be successful, Lapp said, the Russians would need a larger warhead than that used on the United States Minuteman missiles.

Dangers in Test.

Lapp said he doubted the Russians would test a 100 megaton weapon on or close above their territory. Such a test, he said, might well render as much as 50,000 square miles of territory uninhabitable for a long time because of radioactive contamination.

But for propaganda purposes, he said, the Russians might detonate a bomb on the order of 60 megatons high above the Soviet Union.

A blast of this size, triggered at night at an altitude of about 300 miles, could light up the sky over a vast area extending over Asia and Europe "and even down to India," Lapp said.

DIVERS RETRIEVE SPACE CAPSULE NORTH OF HAWAII

Three Air Force Men Parachute Into Ocean, Recover Discoverer 29 Payload.

HICKAM AIR FORCE BASE, Hawaii, Sept. 2 (AP)—Three Air Force skin divers parachuted into the Pacific north of Hawaii yesterday and retrieved Discoverer No. 29's gold-plated capsule after it fell from space beyond reach of waiting aerial recovery planes.

The capsule was taken aboard the destroyer Epperson before daylight today, 13 hours after it was retrieved.

The 300-pound capsule, carrying a three-day-old embryonic chicken heart, human dental tissue and human bone and cells, was blown away from the planned impact area by high-altitude winds, the Air Force said.

The recovery package also contained human embryonic membrane cells, bone cells previously flown aboard Discoverer No. 28, human bone marrow cells and two types of viruses that are non-infectious to humans and animals.

It was the second recovery of a Discoverer capsule by the skin divers, and the seventh capsule to be returnd after a ride through space. Four were caught in the air by planes and another was taken from the ocean by a destroyer.

The three skin divers, two of whom had taken part in the earlier recovery, jumped from a C-54 cargo plane with a rubber raft.

Fourteen aircraft, some of them equipped with trapeze-like hooks, were deployed over the Pacific for the aerial catch attempt. An Air Force official said none could get anywhere near the cone.

The skin divers, who were trained for months in special recovery techniques, were T. Sgt. Leote M. Vigare, North Hollywood, Calif.; S. Sgt. William V. Vargas, Honolulu, and Airman 1-C Charles W. Hoell Jr., Portland, Ore. Vigare and Vargas took part in a recovery last June 18, and were awarded Air Medals for their efforts.

HOUSE PRESSED TO RESTORE CUTS OF $896,000,000 IN FOREIGN AID

Committee Makes Reduction Despite Kennedy Plea — Eisenhower Calls Slashes Incomprehensible.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2 (AP)—The House was under pressure from the present and former administrations today to restore funds cut from the foreign aid bill by the Appropriations Committee.

Acting in the face of President Kennedy's plea against further cuts, the committee cut $896,000,000 from the foreign aid appropriation bill yesterday.

In a statement from Gettysburg, Pa., former Republican President Dwight D. Eisenhower said, "These slashes are incomprehensible to me, especially in the light of present world tensions."

Several hours after the cuts were made, the State Department released a letter from Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Secretary of State Dean Rusk. Addressed to Chairman Clarence Cannon, (Dem.), Missouri, the letter had urged the full committee to restore the reductions proposed by the subcommittee.

In making public the letter after the committee disregarded the appeal, the State Department officials said they hoped the funds would be restored by the House itself.

Accepts Proposal.

The committee, adopting its subcommittee recommendations, cut the current year's financing of foreign aid to $3,357,500,000 in new funds. The House and Senate approved Thursday a ceiling of $4,253,500 in the authorization bill, which must be passed before funds can be appropriated.

In their letter, Rusk and McNamara argued that a cut in military aid "could all too easily be interpreted—among our allies in the entire free world, and in the Kremlin and Peiping — to mean the United States will and resolve have weakened. . . ."

In his statement, Eisenhower said in part:

"I am sure the large majority of thinking American citizens, Democrats and Republicans alike, will join me in urging vigorous support of efforts to remedy the damage that would result from these reported committee recommendations."

Life Insurance Action.

The Senate voted yesterday for the sixth time to reopen National Service Life Insurance for World War II and Korean veterans who failed to take it out or let their policies die.

This proposal has been pushed by the Senate for several years and just as persistently rejected in the House.

The Senate this time added the provision carrying two other types of veterans benefits and sent it back to the House with a request for a conference. The other items are an $88,000,000 annual increase in compensation for 2,000,000 service-connected disabled veterans, and a modification of National Service Life Insurance for veterans who now carry five-year term policies but have found the increasing premiums burdensome as they become older.

Airport Bill Passed.

The Senate voted also to give President Kennedy the $375,000,000 he requested for airport improvement grants to be matched by states and cities, and approved a $240,000,000 community health facilities bill.

The airport measure, authorizing a five-year program, was passed by voice vote. It went to a conference with the House which approved $375,000,000, too, but provided for a different method of financing.

The health facilities bill, one of the 16 points in President Kennedy's legislative program, would pump more funds into programs of grants for health services to the aged and the chronically ill, nursing home construction, outpatient care and research in how to build better hospitals. The bill now goes gack to the House which had approved a smaller program.

KILLS SELF, THOUGHT PISTOL WAS FAULTY

Edward A. Loseman, a supervisor at Universal Match Corp., accidentally killed himself today with a revolver that he believed would not operate, St. Louis county police said.

The shooting was witnessed by Loseman's wife and occurred at their home at 10132 Cloverdale drive, Moline.

As Mrs. Loseman related it to county police, the pair had been watching television and were preparing for bed about 2:30 a.m. They began discussing a recent double murder and kidnaping case on the East Side.

Loseman told his wife that she did not have to fear intruders in the house because he had a pistol. He took a .38 caliber revolver from the closet and showed it to Mrs. Loseman, who had not been aware of the weapon's existence.

Loseman put one round in the cylinder. Mrs. Loseman became nervous and asked him to put the weapon away. Loseman said she need not to be concerned because the revolver would not work.

To demonstrate, he placed the barrel of the weapon against his right temple and pulled the trigger. The weapon fired. Loseman was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Louis County Hospital.

Police said Loseman may have believed the revolver was inoperative because it was old, carrying a 1901 patent, and had a slight malfunction of the cylinder.

Loseman was 36 years old. He was the father of four children.

INITIAL JOBLESS CLAIMS DROP FROM 2748 TO 2215

Initial claims for unemployment compensation in St. Louis and St. Louis county in the week ended yesterday dropped to 2215 from 2748 the week before, the Missouri Division of Employment Security reported. This week's total was 3068 below the 5283 in the comparable week last year.

Continued claims this week totaled 15,860. This was 2153 below last week's 18,013 but 1664 above the 14,196 in the comparable week of 1960. The drop in initial claims and the rise in continued claims over last year was attributed by the division to this year's earlier date for automobile model changes resulting in layoffs of production workers.

Initial claims this week totaled 348 and continued claims 3443 under the temporary federal extension law.

ARMED MAN STEALS $16 IN OIL STATION HOLDUP

Willie Wharton, attendent at a service station at 2850 Goodfellow boulevard, was robbed of $16 today by an armed man. The man fled after a customer drove into the station.

Miss Betty Richter, a cashier at Feagan's Market, 3409 Roger place, was robbed of an undetermined amount of money last night by an armed man who covered the lower part of his face with a handkerchief. The man took the money from the cash register after announcing a holdup.

A meatcutter at the market, Carl J. Shinabargar, chased the robber west down an alley between Fairview and Parker avenues but lost him when the robber turned south on Oak Hill avenue.

$950 IN CIGARETTES, $770 IN CASH STOLEN FROM SHOP

Theft of $770 in cash and cigarettes valued at $950 from the Project Food Shop, 1117 Park avenue, was reported to police today.

Entry to the store was gained by removing a panel from the front door.

4 JET SQUADRONS FROM U.S. TO JOIN EUROPE NATO TEST

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2 (AP)—Four squadrons of United States F-100 Sabre jet fighter-attack planes — totaling about 72 aircraft—will fly to Europe to join in a NATO exercise.

The Defense Department announcement today said the jets would participate in Exercise Checkmate, scheduled for Sept. 12 through 14.

Pentagon spokesmen declined to say when the four squadrons would be returned to the United States. The department said Exercise Checkmate is "designed to test defensive capabilities of NATO air, ground and naval forces."

The F-100 is capable of carrying eighter conventional or tactical-size atomic bombs. The plane has a speed of more than 800 miles an hour and can operate at altitudes above 50,0000 feet. It has a range, without aerial refueling, of about 1000 miles.

Tanker planes will be stationed enroute to refuel the jet fighters.

STRECKFUS FILES AMENDED PETITION IN BIAS ACT SUIT

An amended petition attacking the city's public accommodations law as unconstitutional was filed yesterday in circuit court by Streckfus Steamers, Inc., operator of the excursion steamer Admiral.

The company alleged the law violates the charter of the City of St. Louis by attempting to invest the Council of Human Relations with judicial powers. The charter prescribes that city courts shall have jurisdiction over all violations of ordinances, it stated.

The company also said that one section of the law, which became effective July 1, fails to clearly define places of public accommodation. The original suit filed by the Streckfus company has been pending since June 29. The law provides fines of $25 to $500 for operators of public places who discriminate against persons by reason of race, color, religion or ancestry.

FLAT RIVER MAN KILLED IN FALL FROM SCAFFOLD

Walter L. Scott, of Flat River, was fatally injured yesterday when he fell 36 feet from scaffolding at the Church of the Ascension, under construction at Ascension and Nelson drives, Arbor Terrace.

Scott, 52 years old, a laborer, was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Louis County Hospital. He suffered chest injuries.

St. Louis county Coroner Raymond I. Harris said Scott was working on the scaffolding and lost his balance. No inquest will be held.

BRICKLAYER STRIKE AFFECTS EAST SIDE CONSTRUCTION

Members of Bricklayers' Union Local 30, AFL-CIO, in East St. Louis, went on strike yesterday, halting brick construction work being performed by 17 contracting firms in East St. Louis, St. Clair and Madison counties.

The bricklayers have asked for hourly wage increases to $5.12½. Under their old contract, which expired at midnight Thursday, they were earning a minimum of $4.95 an hour. A wage increase of 10 cents an hour was offered by the Southern Illinois Mason Contractors Association and rejected by the union yesterday.

Because no picket lines have been established, members of other building trade unions have been able to continue working. Among jobs affected are a housing project in East St. Louis, a dormitory at Parks College of Aeronautical Technology, Cahokia, and a supermarket at 9500 Collinsville road, St. Clair county.

$1625 AND RINGS WORTH $90 STOLEN FROM HOME

Theft of $1625 and women's rings valued at $90 from the home of Ray Riggs, 8517 Gilmore avenue, was reported last night by Riggs. He said the burglary occurred between 7:40 a.m. and 10:50 p.m. yesterday.

Riggs, a railroad employe, told police the money was in a foot locker which was taken from a bedroom. The rings were in another bedroom. The owner said he had been saving the money to buy an automobile.

Police said entry had been gained by breaking a bathroom window on the second floor. The house had been ransacked.

Battle Group Going to Korea.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2 (UPI)—The Army announced yesterday that its 1148-man first battle group of the Thirty-first Infantry, First Division at Fort Riley, Kan., will be flown to Korea Oct. 1 in a speedup of the troop replacement program. The Army said the replacement "will have no effect on the number of combat elements stationed in Korea."

County Candidates to Be Allowed To File by Mail for 1962 Primary

Purpose Is to Eliminate Standing in Line at Courthouse to Wait for Start of Filing.

A plan to permit candidates for office to file by mail in the 1962 primary election was announced today by the St. Louis county Board of Election Commissioners.

The purpose is to eliminate the necessity of standing in line at the courthouse in Clayton to wait for the start of filing time, a practice which has resulted in fist fights in the past.

Carroll J. Donohue, board chairman, set forth the details of the plan worked out "after much study and deliberation."

Contention among primary candidates heretofore has been for position on the voting machine ballot. Under the new system, filings received by mail up to the beginning of the official filing period will be regarded as arriving simultaneously. Ballot positions among these is to be decided by lot.

The filing period opens at 9 a.m. Jan. 9, and ends at midnight April 23, for the primary to be held in August.

Special forms, including envelopes of various colors for various offices, will be available at the election board office Oct. 1, and can be mailed at any time thereafter.

When the filing period opens, the board will assemble the colored envelopes without opening them, and separate them according to party and office. When there is more than one, the envelopes will be numbered, and numbered cubes will be placed in a container so that when shaken, only one at a time will come out.

If cube No. 3 comes out first, for example, then the candidate whose name is found in envelope No. 3 will be placed first on the ballot, and so forth until all are placed.

Candidates filing by mail or in person after 9 a.m. Jan. 9 will then be placed in chronological order.

10 YEARS FOR EX-ST. LOUISAN IN ATTEMPTED BANK HOLDUP

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 2—Walton M. Ford, formerly of St. Louis, was sentenced to 10 years in prison yesterday by United States District Judge Richard Duncan, for attempted bank robbery.

Ford pleaded guilty to a charge of attempting to rob the Community State Bank here Feb. 14. A woman teller fainted when he handed her a note demanding money, and the holdup failed.

The man also was charged with robbing the Easton-Taylor Trust Co. of St. Louis of $1961 last year. He also admitted that, saying he needed money to pay an $80 kennel bill for his dog.

SONIC BOOMS MAY BE HEARD ON THREE DAYS THIS WEEK

Sonic booms may be heard in the St. Louis area Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, the Air Force announced yesterday.

Booms may occur within two hours of 6 p.m. Tuesday, 10:15 p.m. Wednesday and 3:35 a.m. Thursday. The noise results when airplanes fly faster than sound.

DRIVER KILLED WHEN CAR IS HIT FROM THE REAR

Passenger Hurt in Wreck on Lemay Ferry Road — Fatal Motor Scooter Accident.

Leo Kraus, a truck driver, was killed and a passenger was seriously injured early today when his automobile was struck from the rear by another machine and overturned on Lemay Ferry road, about one-fourth mile north of Baumgartner road, St. Louis county.

The passenger, Miss Judy K. Eichelberger, 18 years old, of 332 Kingston drive, Lemay, suffered head injuries. She was in serious condition at St. Louis County Hospital.

Driver of the other car, Weldon Faulks, 4255 Tuckaway lane, Mehlville, was treated for minor injuries at the hospital and released. Kraus, 21, was pronounced dead at county hospital.

Police said Kraus's northbound car was knocked 141 feet from the point of impact and turned over after striking a utility pole.

Murphy C. Hadley, Madison, was killed today when his automobile struck a pipe and a tree on Illinois Highway 111, about three miles east of Granite City, Illinois State Police reported.

Hadley, 47, apparently lost control of the northbound car before it crashed, state police said. He was alone in the car.

Harold Rogers, a safety supervisor for Eastern Express, Inc., was killed yesterday when a motor scooter he was driving crashed into one of the company's trucks on the firm's property, 8888 Hall street. He was pronounced dead at Faith Hospital.

Driver of the truck, George F. Rhodes, 8446 Lowell lane, told police he was passing a row of tractor trailers on his left. He said he stopped when he saw Rogers making a right turn at the end of the row.

The motor scooter crashed head-on into the truck, throwing Rogers to the pavement. Rogers, 41, lived at 8647 Belhaven drive, St. John.

Letters from the People

An Undrained Area

The Ripa-Kingston-Broadway area is the focal point of a watershed that comprises several square miles. Some years ago this area would flood only rarely, and the water would recede very rapidly.

During the past five years the condition has become progressively worse. Now any rain will create a flood on Broadway between Ripa and Kingston, which will take a day or more to recede.

Prior to the formation of the Metropolitan St. Louis Sewer District the St. Louis County Highway Engineer would periodically clean out the drainage ditches and sinkholes serving this area.

During the past 10 years the area within this watershed has been extensively developed.

Creation of the subdivisions with streets and houses replaced open fields which in the past had absorbed much of the water. It has become impossible for the sinkholes to handle the situation.

To alleviate the trouble the Sewer District has installed a by-pass valve which diverts some of the storm water into the sanitary sewer. This has been unsuccessful because of the small size of the sanitary sewer line.

The frequent and prolonged flooding of this area causes much inconvenience to residents and those who must travel this portion of the state highway.

Children from three schools must cross the Ripa and Broadway intersection. Flood water reaches a depth of four feet at these points.

Sewage from the sanitary sewers becomes mixed with this water.

A remedy has been recommended by the Metropolitan Sewer District. Installation of catch basins and a storm sewer of sufficient size to carry this water directly eastward to the Mississippi river. C. Wolk

Only Sincere Negotiations

Berlin is another example—after the most recent ones of the U-2 and Cuba—of the military influencing, or even dictating our foreign policy. They act as in the days of World War I, as if to reassure the people that this would be "just another little war."

The Soviet suggestion for a neutral, demilitarized Germany and Berlin is not unreasonable. The West could not tolerate Russian troops deep inside Western territory either.

Only sincere negotiations instead of arms build-ups and threats can prevent a disastrous new war.

New York Leo Pach

Everybody Gains

The recent group of letters headed "Liberty and Schools" set me to thinking.

With two short exceptions these letters were from Roman Catholic parents asking either tax support for parochial schools or personal tax relief for having sent their children to parochial schools. The general arguments presented were the familiar ones that by not sending their children to public schools they were in effect presenting a saving to the school district and at the same time not receiving something for which they were being taxed.

The thing I found thought-provoking was that not one of these letters, or for that matter, none I have ever read on this subject, asks relief in any form for the single person, the childless couple, or the couple whose children are not of school age. All these groups are subject to the same taxation as the couple with children who choose to send them to a parochial school. Is there no voice to rise up and protest this injustice?

My wife and I have no children. In our circle of friends are several couples who have no children. Other friends have children who are outside school age. These could say they are receiving no benefit from their tax money. However, I feel that I speak for most if not all of them when I say I am getting my money's worth from the tax I pay to support the school systems. It is my feeling that only through a strong, well supported school system can the youth of today be trained for tomorrow's leadership.

The Breaking Point

For every person there is a point at which his credulity is tested. Frankly, I accepted the conquest of outer space as matter of factly as if I had an uncle who commuted somewhere around out there. But when I read the other day that there are ants on top of the Empire State Building, well, I find this dang hard to believe. Please don't argue! My mind balks at the enormity of it. What Next?

Not Loud, but Clear

A nation's most effective propaganda, says Secretary of State Rusk, is its behavior. This statement from his testimony before a Senate committee ought to be taken by Congress as a first principle for all information programs.

Judged only by weekly hours of short-wave broadcasting, the United States would surely be losing the propaganda battle. Voice of America broadcasts 663 hours weekly in 36 languages, putting it in fourth place behind Radio Moscow, with 1045 hours, Radio Cairo with 766 and Radio Peking with 604.

The Voice of America is, however, improving its statistical position. It is again broadcasting in Portuguese to Brazil, a nation of 70 millions to which broadcasts were halted in 1953. The Voice also is adding new broadcasting hours in other languages, and with a sympathetic Administration behind it, is slowly shortening the gap between itself and Radio Moscow.

Fortunately, direct short-wave broadcasting statistics do not tell the whole story. The Voice places about 3000 hours a week in Latin America on Latin American stations, through recordings and tapes. This is a most effective way of reaching peoples who lack a multitude of radios and in any case prefer standard broadcasts to the static of short-wave.

Yet even these statistics cannot describe the impact of Voice of America as against that of its rivals—in this case, impact on a relatively small and select audience. VOA research indicates that its listeners have certain things in common. They are interested in politics, or in learning English, and are quite likely to be students, teachers or professional men.

This is a highly intelligent audience and it requires intelligent treatment. It is perhaps too intelligent not to be able to sort out synthetic propaganda from the truth, fiction from fact and excuses from failures. Those congressional critics who urge the Voice to project a favorable image of the United States are deprecating its audience. What is needed most is a correct image.

During World War II, Radio Berlin broadcast more vociferously than Radio London, but people throughout the world tuned to the famed B.B.C. international newscasts to find out what was happening. A nation that has confidence in itself and its position, as the United States should have, simply cannot afford to be other than factual. Even the admission of mistakes can be an effective means of inviting understanding.

Moreover, since the Voice of America is a sidearm of American foreign policy, its effectiveness greatly relies on the effectiveness of that policy. The Voice does not make policy, but only explains it. No propaganda could turn the Cuban invasion fiasco into anything other than what it was.

Secretary Rusk assured the questioning Senators that the Voice would be strengthened, and that it would endeavor to project a more favorable image. But the most favorable image would be one of the best aspirations of the United States reinforced, as Mr. Rusk indicated, by good national behavior. A government that puts correct policy before propaganda need not be anxious over the quality of the latter.

A Comet for a Bull's-Eye

Feats of markmanship always have an appeal so the 1200 astronomers in convention at Berkeley, Cal., really got down to earth for the laymen when they advanced a plan to shoot a rocket through the head of a comet in 1964. The idea is something that William Tell, Annie Oakley and Buffalo Bill could grasp although the technology and mathematics involved would leave them as baffled as it does us.

As a result of a resolution endorsed by comet and meteor specialists from 33 nations, Encke's Comet is designated the target for a bit of celestial archery on July 12, 1964. On that date the comet, moving at 50,000 miles an hour, will be within 25,000,000 miles of the Earth. The gaseous head of this comet is about 60,000 miles wide but the bull's eye would be a mile-wide white hunk of frozen gases and cosmic dust. If the rocket came within 10,000 miles of this so-called snowball, the International Astronomical Union would have good cause to be pleased. Inside the probe would be a camera and instruments for determining chemical composition.

If Moscow and Washington could co-operate as they did on the very successful International Geophysical Year, the comet shoot could be equally successful. And if the probing missile comes near the bull's eye, old Sagittarius, the archer constellation of the southern sky, might fade away in jealousy.

Jobs Ahead of Progress

When members of the National Association of County Officials adopted a resolution against a Federal Department of Urban Affairs, they made no secret of their fear that such a department might deal directly with metropolitan centers, by-passing states and counties, thus jeopardizing their jobs.

An urbanized nation, however, cannot afford second-class treatment of its most heavily populated areas just to maintain prerogatives of obsolescent political institutions. In the rural America of an earlier day the county courthouse, within a day's horse-back ride, met most governmental needs. Today its utility is shrinking to that of a judicial district. As in St. Louis County, its exercise of other functions is confined largely to unincorporated areas.

Perhaps counties may find a new utility—for purely legal reasons—as the means of integrating balkanized municipalities. Then they really would become super-cities. Organized as most of them are, it is a question whether they rather than the cities can fit local government to modern necessities. Yet such adjustment has become urgent.

Between Boston and Baltimore there now stands a virtually continuous city of 31,000,000 inhabitants. As The New York Times said: "It does not matter, except as a source of confusion, that this urban giant sprawls across state and other boundaries." It does matter, however, that state governments, dominated by a rapidly shrinking rural population, seem less and less able to adjust to an urbanization which is by no means confined to the East.

Urban inefficiency stems largely from arbitrary political division. In many cases state laws are obstacles to consolidation and integration. By insisting on the efficient integration of some functions as a condition for assistance, the Federal Government might help to unsnarl the urban sprawl. In any case, urban America is entitled to a voice in Washington—if need be, even at the expense of county officials.

The Hospital Staff Problem

It may be possible for city officials and medical school administrators to work some improvements in the new wage scales for doctors in the city's hospitals, especially since they are to reconsider how much is to be paid by the city and how much by the schools to those on two payrolls. Yet such an adjustment is not likely to bring many more medical men to the hospital. There simply are not enough doctors.

City Hospital has a considerable number of unfilled internships. So do almost all hospitals, except those relatively few institutions with sufficient prestige to bring them more applicants than they accept. That is why many hospitals employed foreign-trained physicians—so-called "coolie doctors"—made more difficult now by the insistence of the American Medical Association on a rigid examination. The test means better qualified personnel, but it also means less help.

The pattern is similar to that which developed after the clean-up of medical schools 50 years ago under the auspices of the A.M.A. Council on Medical Education and Hospitals. This meant better training, but the number of medical students dropped from 21,256 in 1909 to 14,088 in 1929. Currently there are about 28,000. The schools do not train enough physicians to keep pace with the increase in population. And Dr. Stenhope Bayne-Jones of the Surgeon General's Office says at least 25,000 more physicians will be needed for research alone by 1970. If the present physician-patient ratio is to be maintained, at least 22 new medical schools will have to be opened, according to Dean Vernon W. Lippard of the Yale Medical School.

Cost has been a factor in the inadequate supply of doctors even though the Government now grants large subsidies to medical education. Most of the grants, however, have too many strings attached. The money might do more if used directly for the training of more doctors instead of often over-financed research.

In any case, only frustration can result from keeping quality high at the cost of keeping quantity low. Until many more good doctors are trained there will continue to be staff problems in most of our hospitals. Pay alone is no solution. It may even induce scarcity.

Tragedy Over Mont Blanc

The world's highest aerial cable lift, which carries tourists and skiers over the Mont Blanc range in the French Alps, was safeguarded against practically every kind of accident except that which took six lives last Tuesday. The wonder is that the French jet fighter did not sever the main cable. Had it done so, the death toll might have included all 87 using the lift instead of just the six who died when the three cabins were derailed as the plane cut the tow line.

Those who were rescued from the stalled cabins hours after the accident endured the most harrowing suspense, not knowing whether their cabins would fall into the abyss several hundred feet below or not. Searchlights and moonlight aided rescue teams working in the freezing night temperatures. Mountain guides risked their lives to attach lines to cabins and winch them in to safety. Men in repair carriers, rolling on the support cables, and helicopters rescued others. The Mont Blanc cable lift, shown on postcards, in press photographs and moving pictures the world over, will be remembered as the scene of a tragedy such as only the mind of an Edgar Allan Poe could imagine.

East St. Louis Is Wrong

East St. Louis's objections to the proposed new Poplar street free bridge, as offered at the public hearing held by the Army Corps of Engineers, were largely irrelevant, self-serving and of questionable soundness. East St. Louis owns the Veterans Memorial toll bridge. It opposes locating the free bridge at Poplar street in the belief the new span would attract toll-payers from the Veterans bridge.

The hearing was on the application of the Missouri and Illinois Highway departments for Corps of Engineer approval of the design of the new bridge—nothing else—so East St. Louis's pocket-book objection was irrelevant. Also the objection was obviously self-serving. The East Side city will earn $220,000 this year from motorists using the span, and more than twice that in the near future. St. Louis is taking in about $1,000,000 a year in tolls from MacArthur bridge and could have made the same kind of arguments; to its credit, it didn't.

The essential weakness of the East St. Louis position is that it has no proof that the free bridge would kill off business on Veterans bridge. St. Louis expects a temporary loss of revenue when the new span is opened; but St. Louis also recognizes that toll income ultimately will rise again if traffic to and from the East Side increases, as it certainly will if this area grows as it should. This in fact is precisely the experience of Eads Bridge during the period it was trying to attract toll traffic while the MacArthur bridge was free.

Instead of opposing the Poplar street bridge, what East St. Louis ought to concentrate on is its earlier proposal for improvement of the St. Louis approaches to its own bridge, now a serious bottleneck. This might well include an offer to pay a substantial part of the $2,000,000 cost of this work which in the long run represents a positive way to offset any toll traffic lost to the new free bridge.

Calling 201-29-6545

We suppose everyone ought to approve, in the interest of efficiency and economy, the Treasury's plan to assign permanent numbers to income taxpayers. The House Ways and Means Committee has approved legislation under which the taxpayer's social security number would serve as his permanent tax account number. We do not want to obstruct progress, but this seems another step toward the mechanical man. How long will it be before anything at all can be found out about an individual simply by running him through a computer?

"YOU'RE NEW HERE, AREN'T YOU?"

Bradley Report, 5 Years After

Nothing Done to Revamp Veterans Benefits, Now Triple the Space Budget

An Editorial in
The Providence Bulletin

Congress completed action the other day on an appropriation of $8,900,000,000 to run the Federal Government's independent offices — those agencies without Cabinet status—during the current fiscal year.

The bill included $1,700,000,000 for the program of the National Aeronautics and Space Agency, including preparations to attempt a manned landing on the moon before the Russians get there. Also in the measure were items ranging from one to three quarters of a billion for such purposes as science, aviation and housing.

The Mirror of Public Opinion

But the biggest single hunk of the money, measure—a whopping $4,900,000,000 — was earmarked for the Veterans Administration.

Here truly is a disgraceful state of affairs. With the nation confronting dangers unparalleled in its entire history, with the federal budget out of balance and the national debt bursting at the seams, Congress blithely decides to spend on pensions and other benefits for veterans nearly three times as much as for space exploration!

If the Kennedy Administration is at all serious about cutting back unnecessary expenditures in order to finance the beefed-up military program and truly productive federal projects, here surely is an excellent place to start. Probably it is too late to accomplish anything this year, because the veterans' five-billion-dollar plum is part and parcel of an essential appropriation, and the President unfortunately lacks the power of the item veto. But certainly it is not too late now to blueprint plans for drastic revision of the whole veterans' program at the next session of Congress.

—Post-Dispatch, Jan. 9, 1951.

Let each of us put our country ahead of our party, and ahead of our personal interests.

—President Truman.

It is five long years ago since the expert commission headed by former Gen. Omar Bradley presented a fine set of recommendations to this end. It was nearly three years ago that a House committee turned up such fantastic cases as that of a man with a total of four months of military service (all of it in this country), who had assets of $62,906 and a yearly income of $3348, but who nevertheless qualified under the law for a lifetime pension check as a "needy veteran."

President Kennedy has said not a word on the subject. So the veterans' lobbies keep on lobbying (the most expensive lobby in all Washington last year was that of the Veterans of World War I of the U.S.A., Inc.), and Congressmen keep on voting obediently for lavish veteran benefits.

To be sure, the nation does have a clear obligation to some classes of veterans, notably those wounded in service. But to make any military record an automatic qualification for government handouts of one kind or another is entirely unjustified. And to spend nearly three times as much on veteran benefits as on space probing in times like these is beyond all proportion and all reason.

Simon for the Senate? From the East St. Louis Journal

Representative Paul Simon, Troy, a leader in a group of young Downstate Democrats who attracted public attention during the regular session of the Seventy-second General Assembly, is making a bid for his party's nomination for the United States Senate next year.

Representative Simon, a legislative veteran at 33, will have strong Downstate backing from younger Democrats.

Although Cook county is dominant in the Democratic party in Illinois, both parties will choose candidates from Downstate since the seat now is held by Senator Everett Dirksen, Republican, of Pekin. The senior Senator from Illinois, Democrat Paul Douglas, is a Chicagoan.

Representative Simon is well aware of the political realities in Illinois. He knows that the senatorial candidate slated by the Democratic state organization, which is dominated by the Cook county organization controlled by Chicago's Mayor Richard Daley, will very likely get the party's nomination. He would like to have that pre-primary indorsement, of course. If he doesn't get it, and doesn't approve of the candidate who does, then he and his young followers might make an independent campaign and surely would find primary support among younger Downstate Democrats.

Paul Simon, a vigorous and outspoken weekly newspaper editor and publisher between legislative sessions, is destined for public service on a level higher than the Illinois House. He has time, but he is a young man in a hurry and other young men are wiling to speed his progress.

Between Book Ends Laotian's Account of Laos

STORM OVER LAOS: A CONTEMPORARY HISTORY, by Sisouk Na Champassak. (Praeger, 202 pgs., $5.)

Now that there is a temporary lull in the long-standing Laos crisis, it is valuable to stop and ask: Just how did the crisis come about? An excellent starting point in answering this perplexing question is the reading of "Storm Over Laos." Little of substance has been written about the tiny, tortured Asian kingdom, whose 3,000,000 inhabitants are about as uninformed concerning the crisis that swirls around them as any people could be. And less still has come from Laotians themselves.

"Storm Over Laos" has the advantage of being written by a 30-year-old Laotian, Sisouk Na Champassak, who now is his country's U.N. representative — illustrating the youth of the leaders of these newly independent nations of Asia and Africa.

But more importantly, Mr. Sisouk's story is perhaps the best account available in English of his country's history since the French appeared on the scene 70 years ago. He carries his story through last December, when Soviet transport planes in increasing numbers were darkening the Laotian sky. It is a careful account, full of not very widely known information.

French rule was benevolent. While colonial, the French and Laotians got along in a friendly manner. Lao royalty was preserved and given a French orientation. Independence came after World War II, as it did to all of what was once French Indochina. The arrangement was a happy one—or so it seemed on the surface—for French and Lao officials worked side-by-side. But underneath this surface calm was the machinations of the "Red Prince" Souphannouvang, who at the start of the Korean War founded the Pathet Lao, an allegedly Communist organization which has bulked large in Laotian news ever since.

To Mr. Sisouk, the Pathet Lao is not out-and-out Communist in ideology, but rather it has become an agency of the Communist government of North Vietnam. Only a minority of the Pathet Lao members are natives of Laos, he asserts. And he further believes that the more the Pathet Lao operates and is seen by Laotians to be an agent of an outside government, the smaller are its prospects of growth.

These words, coming from a minister of the Laotian government, might be suspect—as words of hope rather than reality—were it not for the fact that Mr. Sisouk is a member of liberal-oriented and sometimes effective Committee for the Defense of National Interests. This group, since its founding in 1958, has aimed at eliminating corruption from government and is espousing liberal philosophies which are anathema to old-time Lao politicians. The committee has had some success in this work—at the same time it has remained militantly anti-Communist. Many of the committee's members have become a part of the Lao bureaucracy and have made their influence felt.

"Storm Over Laos" shows how militantly anti-Communist is Mr. Sisouk. But he also is a realist. He evidences the mood of thoughtful Laotians who realize that a negative anti-Communist stand will not answer Laos's problems. Rather, he espouses firm, positive reform measures to meet Communism's challenge. He does not always indicate how these measures will be carried out, but he does put them forward.

Despite such lapses, Mr. Sisouk's book is a readable and valuable study. The tragedy of Laos needs to be understood. "Storm Over Laos" goes far in meeting this need.

WILLIAM Z. FOSTER DIES; LED U.S. REDS

MOSCOW, Sept. 2 (UPI)—William Z. Foster, veteran leader of the Communist party in the United States and three-time candidate for President, died last night in a Moscow sanatorium. He was 80 years old.

Mr. Foster had been ill for years with a heart ailment and a series of strokes that prevented his being tried on charges that he conspired to overthrow the United States Government.

He came to the Soviet Union early this year for medical treatment and was visited on his eightieth birthday Feb. 25 by Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

The cause of his death was not revealed.

His wife, Esther, was with him when he died.

Mr. Foster started as early as 1923 trying to communize the United States.

First elected chairman of the American Communist party in 1933, he consolidated his hold on the party in 1944-45 when he ousted Earl Browder in a power struggle that rocked the party.

After passage of the Smith Act in 1948, he was idicted with 11 other party leaders on charges of conspiring to teach and advocate the overthrow of the Government. He never was brought to trial because of his illness.

In December 1960, a United States District Court gave him permission to go to Czechoslovakia and the Soviet Union for medical treatment although the indictment still held. He had been free on $5000 bail for several years.

Mr. Foster was born in Taunton, Mass., Feb. 15, 1881. When he was 9 he began work in a stonecutter's shop. At 19 he was forced to give up factory work because of illness. He then worked as a seamen, laborer, farm hand, logger, longshoremen, salesman, railway brakeman, clerk, street car motorman, steamfitter and writer on a Socialist paper in Seattle, Wash.

He was converted to socialism when he was 19. In 1909 he joined the Industrial Workers of the World. Later he joined the American Federation of Labor in hopes of turning it into a radical organization by boring from within. He was a leader in many bitter strikes.

Mr. Foster organized and led a demonstration of more than 100,000 unemployed and others in New York in March 1930, at height of the depression and was sentenced to six months imprisonment.

He was the Communist candidate for President of the United States in 1924, 1928 and 1932.

FINE 'RIGOLETTO' AT WASHINGTON U.

By MANUS SASONKIN

The August Opera Festival's production of Verdi's "Rigoletto," which had the first of two performances last night at the Washington University Quadrangle, far surpassed expectations, dramatically and musically.

What elevated last night's "Rigoletto," from a level of admirable competence to one which invoked all manner of superlatives were, first, an unfailing sense of style, and second, a cohesive finely meshed concept into which all details fitted with complete logic. It was the first performance by the company in which everyone appeared to be governed by the same dramatic impulse and in which everyone appeared to be headed in the same dramatic direction.

Credit for these achievements must go to Edward Murphy, who conducted the performance with regard for his singers as well as the music; and to John McCrae, whose stage directions displayed apparently unlimited resources of good taste, imagination and awareness of the physcal limitations of the stage.

The principals in last night's performance were, by and large, beyond reproach. Vocally, they impressed as being as nearly flawless a group as one might reasonably expect to encounter on a stage. Dramatically, they tended toward the attitudinizing and the empty posturing which characterizes most operatic acting; but one must not berate them too heavily for their failure to do more. Doubtless, more rehearsal time would have made a difference.

In the title role, Clifford Harvout had a commanding baritone voice which projected not just mere notes, but the tragic essence of the character. John Alexander's clarion tenor enjoyed a similar success as the Duke. Marjorie Gordon, as Gilda, seemed rather disembodied in her opening scene—"Cara Nome" was as impeccably vapid as I have ever heard it—but acquired intensity as her part waxed.

Others more or less prominent were Thomas Coleman (Marullo), John Peck (Monterone) and Val Patacchi (Sparafucile). All provided satisfaction, particularly Mr. Patacchi, whose dark voice and ominous characterization had a terrorizing effect. The orchestra and chorus sounded admirable. In fact, the entire performance achieved that astounding point at which its materials were transcended.

The production will be repeated tonight at 8:30.

FUNERAL SERVICES MONDAY FOR DR. E. LEE SHRADER

Funeral services for Dr. E. Lee Shrader, internist, cardiologist and until 1957 director of student health at St. Louis University for 30 years, will be at 9 a.m. Monday at the Alexander undertaking establishment, 6175 Delmar boulevard. Burial will be in Oak Lawn Cemetery.

Dr. Shrader, 63 years old, died of a heart ailment yesterday at St. Louis County Hospital. He was on the staff of the St. Mary's Group of Hospitals, an associate professor of medicine at St. Louis University and a director and past president of the Missouri Heart Association. From 1931 to 1935 he was director of City Hospital. He lived at 6651 Waterman avenue, University City.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Eugenia Shrader; a daughter, Miss Genie Lee Shrader of University City; a son, Martin Shrader of Webster Groves, and his mother, Mrs. May Shrader of Moberly, Mo.

SISTER MARY MAGDALEN FUNERAL TO BE MONDAY

Funeral services for Sister Mary Magadlen Murphy R.S.M., assistant administartor at St. John's Hospital for the last four years, will be at 9 a.m. Monday in the convent chapel at the hospital. Burial will be in the St. Joseph of Mercy Convent Cemetery.

Sister Mary Magdalen, 53 years old, died yesterday at the hospital of a heart ailment. Born in Ireland, she was provincial procurator of the Sisters of Mercy of St. Louis Province at Our Lady of Mercy Convent, 2039 North Geyer road, Frontenac, from 1941 to 1957.

Surviving are two brothers, one in Dublin and the other a priest in Wigtownshire, Scotland, and a sister in Dublin.

EERO SAARINEN FUNERAL; DESIGNED RIVERFRONT ARCH

Private funeral services for Eero Saarinen were held in Detroit today. The world-famous architect died yesterday at Ann Arbor, Mich., after a brain tumor operation.

His death was not expected to delay construction of the 630-foot Gateway Arch, which he designed as the dominant feature of the St. Louis riverfront memorial park. Engineers of Mr. Saarinen's staff are preparing working drawings for the arch.

He is survived by his wife, the former Aline B. Louchheim; two sons, Eames and Eric, and a daughter, Susan. His father was the late Eliel Saarinen, also a famous architect.

METHODIST PASTORS TAKE SUMMER STUDY

By JOHN T. STEWART
Church Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

More than 250 Missouri Methodist ministers attended the annal summer school for pastors at Central Methodist College, Fayette, Mo., this week. The school opened Monday and closed yesterday.

A St. Louis group of pastors was led by the Rev. Dr. Albea Godbold, superintendent of the St. Louis North District of the Methodist Church, and the Rev. John L. Wood, superintendent of the St. Louis South District. Bishop Eugene M. Frank, who has led the summer school for several years, is in Europe.

The Rev. Dr. Wesley H. Hager, pastor of Grace Methodist Church, St. Louis, preached a series of sermons during the week. Dean of the school was the Rev. Perry Rowland, pastor of North Kansas City Methodist Church.

Bible studies were led by the Rev. Dr. John Price, associate professor of religion of Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, O. A course in pastoral counselling was conducted by the Rev. Dr. James Doty, director of counselling for the Indianapolis area of the Methodist Church.

The use of visual aids in church was discussed by James C. Campbell, director of the Methodist Church Commission on Television, Radio and Communications.

Another lecturer was the Rev. Dr. William F. Case, dean of St. Paul School of Theology, Kansas City.

Mornings at the summer school were given to sermons and lectures, and afternoons to workshops.

The summer school for pastors was started many years ago for the benefit of the many Methodist ministers who lacked theological training and were required to take a conference course of study. The school was held for two weeks and included examinations in subjects which the pastors had studied at home. In recent years, nearly all men ordained to the Methodist Church ministry have been graduates of theological seminaries, and the summer school meets for only one week. It provides refresher courses in theology, Bible, preaching, and pastoral and parish work.

CATHOLIC CENTER REPORTS 258 CONVERTS SINCE 1953

The Catholic Information Center, 318 North Eleventh street, has received 258 converts into the Catholic Church since the center was opened in 1953, according to the eighth annual report recently issued. The converts were given instructions either privately or in classes.

The report points out that an important feature of the center's daily operations is "the apostolate of the telephone." An average of 60 telephone calls a day are received. Many are requests for names, addresses and telephone numbers of priests and parishes, or for information about various institutions and organizations of the St. Louis Archdiocese.

"Telephone calls are also received on questions of faith and morals, fasting regulations, church etiquette, liturgy, church history, scripture, and a variety of other subjects," the report states.

The center offers counseling service and a training program for lay catechists.

The Rev. Valentine Young, O.F.M., is the new director of the Information Center. He succeeded the Rev. Jerome F. Wilkerson, a priest of the archdiocese, who had been director for four years.

BAPTIST STUDENTS MEET

Miss Barbara Shaw and William Wagoner, both of St. Louis, were among nearly 600 college students who attended the annual Baptist student conference this week at the American Baptist Assembly, Green Lake, Wis.

Miss Shaw is a member of Third Baptist Church, and Wagoner of Delmar Baptist Church.

Missionary to Brazil Accepts Call to Lutheran Church Here

A former missionary to Brazil who can preach sermons in English, Portuguese, and German languages will be installed tomorrow as pastor of Bethany Lutheran Church, 4100 Natural Bridge avenue.

The Rev. George J. Mueller, formerly of Porto Alegre, Brazil, succeeds the late Rev. Dr. Adolph Behnke, who died last July 13. When the Rev. Dr. Behnke retired from active duty two years ago, he had been pastor of Bethany Church for 34 years. The Rev. Dr. J. Theodore Mueller of Concordia Theological Seminary, who served as assistant pastor of Bethany Church, will conduct the installation rite at a special service at 3 p.m. He has been in charge of the congregation since August, 1959.

The sermon will be preached by the Rev. Dr. Carl S. Meyer, head of the postgraduate department of Concordia Seminary.

THE REV. GEORGE J. MUELLER

Went to Brazil in 1936.

Born in Germany in 1911, the Rev. George Mueller came to the United States when he was 15 years old, and enrolled at Concordia College, Milwaukee. He was graduated from Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, in 1934. In 1936 he accepted a call to the mission field in Brazil, and was an instructor at Seminario Concordia, Porto Alegre. This city, whose present population is almost 600,000, is the capital of the State of Rio Grande do Sul, on the border of Uruguay.

Afterwards, the Rev. Mr. Mueller accepted a call to the interior of the same state, at Alto Rolante. For six years he was a circuit rider, serving a multiple parish of three congregations and nine preaching stations. When this work was divided with another pastor, the Rev. Mr. Mueller kept two of the congregations and three preaching stations for five more years. This far-flung parish had 1200 baptized members, and Pastor Mueller made his pastoral calls on a mule. When Mrs. Mueller accompanied her husband on his pastoral visits, she rode a horse or a mule.

The missionary's wife had to draw water for her household from a well, baked bread in a brick oven, and did the family laundry in a brook.

Ate Rice and Black Beans.

Most members of the rural parish were descendants of German immigrants. They tilled the soil with oxen, plow and hoe. Rice and black beans were their daily fare.

After 11 years of service in the rural parish, the Rev. Mr. Mueller accepted a call to St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Porto Alegre, where he was pastor for another 11 years. At the end of his ministry the congregation numbered 953 baptized members and 685 communicants. The Rev. Mr. Mueller also served the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Brazil as counselor, as secretary of the board of Seminario Concordia, and as editor of a periodical for children. He preached regularly in Portuguese and German.

The Muellers have five children ranging in age from 12 to 23 years. All of them were born in Brazil and speak Portuguese fluently.

Visitors Monday will be welcomed by the Rev. Lawrence Chiuminatto, S.J., director of White House. He will be assisted by the Rev. Joseph Gschwend, S.J., and the Rev. Robert McEniry, S.J., assistant directors.

ST. NICHOLAS CHURCH TO LAY CORNERSTONE FOR ADDITION

The cornerstone of an addition to St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church, 4957 Forest Park avenue, will be laid tomorrow at 5 p.m., it was announced by the Rev. Constantine Andrews, pastor. At the same ceremony the church's new community center will be dedicated.

The addition to the church will double the seating capacity. St. Nicholas Church was built in 1930. The congregation now numbers 1000.

COLLEGE STUDENTS 'SELF-CONCERNED,' EDUCATORS TOLD

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Sept. 1 — "Self-confident, conventional middle class viewpoint of morality, concerned with self to the exclusion of broader civic responsibilities, broadly tolerant."

This was the description of the 1961 college student painted by the Rev. Dr. David S. Schuller of Concordia Theological Seminary, St. Louis, for 475 persons attending a church school meeting here this week. The conference of college and seminary faculties of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod was held at Concordia Senior College.

"Lutheran students," the Rev. Dr. Schuller said, "are most troubled in five areas. Boys are concerned about family and school; girls worry most about the opposite sex, personal faith, and self. In these problem areas Lutheran youth look to the church for help."

In the conference keynote address, the Rev. Dr. Herbert G. Bredemeier of Concordia Senior College told the teachers that to improve the learning process "we must force ourselves to become researchers into better ways of putting across our objectives and goals —not just hitchhikers on ideas to please our various publics."

Missouri Synod colleges expect to enroll 6365 students for the 1961-62 academic year, the conference was told.

RABBI FROM ST. LOUIS TAKES LOS ANGELES POST

Rabbi Samuel Z. Fishman of St. Louis has been appointed director of the Hillel Council at the University of California, Los Angeles. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Fishman of 6745 Bartmer avenue, University City.

Rabbi Fishman is completing two years of service as associate director at U.C.L.A., where the Hillel Council serves approximately 3000 students. He is a graduate of Washington University, and was ordained at Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion, Cincinnati. He has served as rabbi of congregations in Pennsylvania and Arkansas, and as a chaplain in the Army.

Bible Reading Urged.

WHEATON, Ill. (AP)—A drive is being planned by the National Association of Evangelists to get commitments from 10,000,000 people to read the Bible through in 1962. This is part of a program to "return the Bible to the heart of the nation," leaders said.

Jackson Beats Bucs, Is Rated Among N.L.'s Top 5 by Keane

Cardinal Ace Goes Route for 11th Win

By Neal Russo

After Larry Jackson gave the Cardinal bullpen its usual night off, Johnny Keane rated his star righthander "right now one of the top five pitchers in the National League."

Since Keane became manager, Jackson has been No. 1 in the league on the basis of winning percentage with eight victories and one defeat. Jackson, who was struggling with a 3-8 record when Keane plucked him from the bullpen, beat the Pirates a third time in as many tries this season, 8-4, last night at Busch Stadium.

When the same Pirates put the baseball Cardinals in the record book with a 19-0 beating Aug. 3, the Redbirds didn't bother posting clubhouse reminders like, "Remember the 19-0" or "Get Even With Those Mean Bucs." However, Keane's men have downed the world champions three straight times since the big rout and they have won 13 straight on their home field.

This time Jackson had the firm backing of the lightweights on the attack. Curt Flood and Jim Schaffer, who are 59 home runs away from Babe Ruth's record, and Alex Grammas, who is a full 60 from the Babe's mark, each drove in two runs. The other RBI came from slumping Charley James, who is just 57 homers behind Ruth's record.

Even Jackson came through with a double to set up the first two St. Louis runs.

"I'd like to win four more games," said Jackson, now 11-9. "I figure that with 15 victories I'd have a pretty good year."

Pitching his fifth no-walk game in his last eight victories, all complete games, Jackson again pleased Keane by heeding the skipper's warning to all hurlers, "Don't put the leadoff man on base!"

Starter-loser Joe Gibbon gave up two unearned runs in the second inning on an infield error, Jackson's double and Flood's single. The Birds then added four runs in the third. After Bill White and Ken Boyer singled, Don Taussig bunted and went all the way to second on the sacrifice as Stuart threw wild. James and Grammas, the first man to face Al McBean, each singled home a run and Schaffer's out scored another.

The other two St. Louis runs came in the seventh when Boyer, James and Grammas singled and Schaffer squeeze-bunted.

Ernie Broglio is scheduled to pitch for the Cardinals against the Pirates' Harvey Haddix in today's 1:30 game at Busch Stadium. The same teams meet in 1:30 games here Sunday and Monday (Labor day).

"It came in handy this time all right," White said of the protective helmet that was struck by a fast ball from pitcher Joe Gibbon in the first inning last night.

White extended his hitting streak to 13 games.... The Birds are 40-23 at home.

Flood turned in another sensational catch in the sixth inning when he raced near the centerfield wall for a high backhand grab of Moryn's drive. "The wind was blowing to left and I thought the ball was out," Flood said.

The pro basketball Hawks, using a "secret weapon" who hit two home runs good for three runs, beat the Press-Radio-TV All-Stars in a softball preliminary. Tony Colletto hit the two home runs for the Hawks and Les Geschke pounded one for the Stars.

Business Manager Marty Blake and coach Paul Seymour pitched for the Hawks, whose lineup included Woody Sauldsberry, Larry Foust, Al Ferrari and newcomer Joe Graboski. Broadcaster Bud Blattner tripled.

Birds Recall Gene Oliver And Buchek

Portland catcher Gene Oliver, batting .296 and leading the Pacific Coast League with 33 home runs, and shortstop Jerry Buchek, batting .276 for the same club, have been recalled and will report to the baseball Cardinals when their league season ends Sept. 10, the Redbirds have announced.

Ten other optioned players have been recalled but none will report to the Birds this season.

The 10 with latest available records:

From Portland — Outfielders Jim Hickman (.239) and Don Landrum (.324) and pitcher Clint Stark (3-9).

From Charleston, International League — Outfielders Doug Clemens (.312) and Carl Warwick (.235), infielder Julio Gotay (.292), catcher Tim McCarver (.222) and pitcher Ray Washburn (13-9 with ERA of 2.66).

From Tulsa, Texas League—Shortstop Gerry Marx (.272).

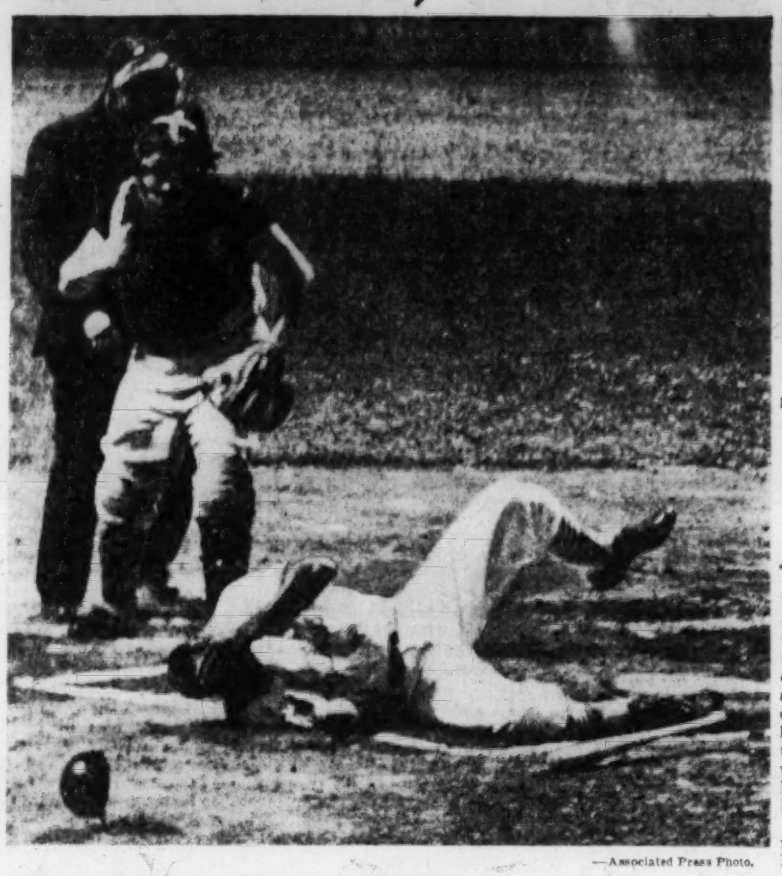

From Lancaster, Eastern League—Outfielder Gary Kolb (.258).

This Didn't Stop White

Cardinal BILL WHITE drops to the ground holding his face after being knocked down by a pitch by Joe Gibbon of Pittsburgh in the first inning of Friday night's game. The ball hit the peak of White's helmet and he suffered a bruise above the left eye, but stayed in the lineup and extended his hitting streak to 13 games with a third-inning single. The catcher is SMOKY BURGESS and the umpire DUSTY BOGGESS. The Redbirds won, 8-4.

'Ridiculous,' McKinley Says of U.S.L.T.A.'s Action Against Ralston

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 2 (AP) — Chuck McKinley, America's top hope in the national tennis championships, today blasted the United States Lawn Tennis Association for the way it (1) handled the Dennis Ralston case, and (2) arranged the preliminary Davis Cup rounds.

McKinley, second seeded behind Australia's Rod Laver, marched into the second round with a 7-5, 6-2, 6-2 victory over George Stoesser of Tucson, Ariz., yesterday as the 10-day nationals got under way in the West Side Tennis Club.

"There is only one word to describe the action of the USLTA against Ralston—it's ridiculous," said McKinley. The USLTA suspended Ralston, who along with McKinley and Tut Bartzen made up the U. S. Davis Cup team. Ralston was charged with unsportsmanlike conduct in the North American zone final against Mexico two weeks ago.

"I'm the voice of experience on these things," said McKinley. (He is on probation for arousing the ire of the USLTA in Australia last year.)

"And I know how Dennis feels. He gave everything he had and they suspend him.

"I know just what happened. He cussed exactly once. They accused him of turning his back on the Mexican captain when he offered him a towel. Dennis didn't even see him approach. I was standing right there."

McKinley also said he and Ralston would have had an easier time against the Mexicans if the match had been played on grass instead of clay.

"Now", he said, "I see they're thinking of playing India in the next round on clay in India. They say the members of the India team have obligations at home. They have so many obligations that they're playing all over Europe now.

"Did it ever occur to the USLTA that we have obligations too. I'm behind in my schoolwork at Trinity (Tex.) University now. If I got into a real jam, I'd just tell them I couldn't play, so sorry.

"And everyone's asking what's wrong with tennis?"

The lower half of the first round was completed yesterday with few surprises.

Cliff Buchholz of St. Louis was leading Edward Hoehn, Hanover, N. H., when the match was halted by darkness. The score stood 16-14, 5-7, 6-1, 6-5.

In the women's division, however, eighth-seeded Yola Ramirez of Mexico downed Carol Hanks of St. Louis—America's 10th ranked woman player — 6-3, 6-2.

Old-Timers Cochran And Andrews Trump British Golf Aces

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 2 (UPI)—The British were in the hole again today—headed for their seventeenth defeat in 18 Walker Cup golf matches.

Led by a couple of old-timers, 48-year-old Gene Andrews of Beverly Hills, Calif., and 49-year-old Bob Cochran of St. Louis, the United States team swept through the invaders, 4-0, yesterday to capture all four of the foursome matches.

It was the third sweep of the foursome matches for the Yanks in the last four competitions—and the fifth in history.

"We stand little chance of victory now," said British team captain Charles Lawrie. "We'd have to win at least six single matches out of the eight to get a halve, seven to win. No, there's no chance."

Andrews, a former St. Louisan and Cochran will be replaced in the singles by two other members of the American team who did not play yesterday—Dr. Frank Taylor of Pamona, Calif., and Charles Smith, Gastonia, N.C.

Jack Nicklaus and Deane Beman teamed to trample James Walker and Brian Chapman, 6 and 5. Bill Hyndman and Bob Gardner paired to rout Joe Carr and Gordon Huddy, 4 and 3. Andrews and Cochran beat the top-rated British pair of Mike Bonallack and Ronnie Shade, by the same score.

The only close match of the day came when Maj. David Blair and Martin Christmas battled Americans Don Cherry and Charley Coe all-even for 35 holes. But this match came apart, too, when Christmas hit his tee shot out of bounds on the 36th—and the Americans had another point in the bag.

The best golf of the day was performed by the old-timers, Andrews and Cochran, who were even par for the 33 holes they played.

SATURDAY'S SINGLES
(United States players named first.)

The Athletics recalled five players to report when their minor league seasons end. Among them is St. Louis pitcher KEN SANDERS of Portsmouth in the Sally League.

Although the Orioles replaced Houston-bound PAUL RICHARDS with coach LUMAN HARRIS as manager for the remainder of the season, General Manager LEE MacPHALL indicated he would seek a manager for next year from another major league club.

Richards will become general manager of Houston's National League team Sept. 8. Craig Cullinan Jr., president of the Houston Sports Association, said today Richards had verbally agreed to a three-year contract but could not get to Houston to sign the contract until Sept. 8.

The Cardinals' Charleston farm team won a doubleheader from Richmond, 6-4, 6-2, in the International League. . . . A two-run triple by DOUG CLEMENS in the tenth inning won the opener, and CARL WARWICK homered in the nightcap after singles by Clemens and FRED WHITFIELD drove in earlier runs. . . . They wrote me letters all summer and have me sold on Missouri."

Second-ranked lightweight CARLOS ORTIZ is an 8-5 favorite in a nationally televised fight against third-ranked DOUG VAILLANT tonight.

An unidentified bettor won $19,461.80 on a $2 ticket at the Taunton, Mass., greyhound dog track. The North American record broke a mark that had been set only 24 hours earlier at the same track.

Reliever Bud Daley Big Man as Yankees Nose Out Tigers, 1-0

By Ed Wilks

NEW YORK, Sept. 2 (AP)—The New York Yankees, still the team that wins the big ones, had heroes by the handful in a 1-0 victory over Detroit last night that increased their American League lead over the second-place Tigers to 2½ games.

But the big guy in the victory was almost overlooked.

Sure, Bill Skowron drove in the run when the Yanks broke through against Don Mossi with three consecutive two-out singles in the ninth.

Sure, Luis Arroyo, bullpen ace, won his tenth in a row with a perfect inning of relief.

And sure, Yogi (the incomparable) Berra, the catcher turned outfielder, broke a Tiger rally with a perfect peg.

But the big guy in the big one was Bud Daley, the long-sought lefthander who looked to be a flop after the Yankees finally got him from Kansas City.

Loser in 6 of Last 7.

It was Daley, a loser in six of his last seven decisions, who twice pitched through the heart of the Tiger attack and saved the shutout after trudging in from the bullpen when Yankee ace Whitey Ford had to call it quits because of a strained hip muscle.

It was Daley who got leadoff man Jake Wood to hit into a force-out with a runner on first when he relieved Ford in the fifth inning. It was Daley who retired Rocky Colavito on a grounder and got Steve Boros on a force-out with a runner on second in the sixth. It was Daley who retired Norm Cash on a foul pop with a runner on third in the eighth.

"It was Daley who did it for us," said Yankee manager Ralph Houk afterward.

Dodgers Gain on Reds.

While the Yankees and Tigers, now all square for the season (6-6), drew the year's top single-game crowd, 65,566, in the opener of their three-game showdown at New York, Cleveland knocked off Baltimore 5-4, the Chicago White Sox split a pair at Washington, winning 3-2, then losing 5-1; Minnesota topped Boston 5-1, and Los Angeles beat Kansas City 6-4.

In the National League, the Los Angeles Dodgers moved within 2½ games of idle first-place Cincinnati by beating Milwaukee 4-3. San Francisco regained third place by defeating the Chicago Cubs, 4-3, in 14 innings, and St. Louis downed Pittsburgh, 8-4.

Skowron's winning hit for the Yankees followed singles by Elston Howard and Berra. Until then, Mossi (14-4) had a five-hit shutout. He walked just one and struck out seven—fanning Mickey Mantle three times and Roger Maris once, and holding both sluggers hitless.

"I never pitched a better game," moaned Mossi. "The only bad pitch I made was the one Skowron hit."

Mantle now is even with Babe Ruth's record-60 home run pace of 1927 with his 48. Maris, with 51, is only five games ahead of Ruth.

Ford, Daley and Arroyo (12-3) shut out the Tigers on seven hits, three by Al Kaline. It was Kaline who moved Billy Bruton, on base with a walk, to third with a single in the eighth, but then was cut down by Berra's throw from left field when he tried to make it a double. After Daley walked Colavito intentionally (following a just-foul drive into the left field seats by The Rock) the Tiger threat died as Howard reached into the stands for Cash's pop foul.

'Toughest Game,' Says Houk.

"This was the toughest game of the year for us," said Houk. Detroit Manager Bob Scheffing said the loss was the same as any other defeat.

Skowron, a worrisome, self-critical type, commented: "It's about time I finally did something. This has been an awful year for me. When Arroyo came in to pitch the ninth, I told him: 'If you hold them this inning, Louie, I'll drive in the winning run'."

The Dodgers, blowing a 3-1 lead after coming from behind, squared their season series with the Braves at 9-9 on John Roseboro's tie-breaking single in the ninth. It followed a walk and a sacrifice and beat Don McMahon (6-2) in relief.

Maury Wills's two-run triple in the fourth, off starter Bob Buhl, over-hauled a 1-0 Milwaukee lead and the Dodgers made it 3-1 in the seventh on singles by Ron Fairly and Frank Howard, plus Roseboro's infield out. Dick Farrell (8-6) was the winner in relief, after giving up the Braves' tying run in the eighth with two wild pitches.

The Los Angeles Angels scored five runs on six straight hits in the fourth inning for a 6-4 victory over the Kansas City Athletics before 1646 fans, smallest crowd of the year at the Angels Wrigley Field.

Cards Face Lion Ace Morrall

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

DETROIT, Sept. 2—Earl Morrall, Detroit Lions quarterback enjoying his finest early season showing, will be one of the particular problems for the St. Louis football Cardinals in the pre-season game here tonight.

The Lions will be seeking their third victory in four training period games against National Football League competition. The Cards have a 1-2 record in which the only victory is over the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian League.

Morrall, who led the Lions in a strong second-place finish in the Western division last season, has tossed six touchdown passes in three pre-season games thus far. He got one in a 23-14 loss to the Philadelphia Eagles a week ago.

Dan LaRose, All-America end with the University of Missouri last year, is one of the promising Detroit rookies this season. He has played at offensive tackle most of the time for the Detroit team.

Tonight's game will start at 8 o'clock St. Louis time.

Meredith's 4 TD Passes Beat Colts

NORMAN, Okla., Sept. 2 (UPI)—Don Meredith, a lean Mustang from S.M.U. who spent his rookie season in the shadow of tiny Eddie Lebaron, may be the man who'll lead the Dallas Cowboys out of the National Football League's wilderness this year.

The Cowboys, who couldn't win a game in their maiden 1960 campaign in the N.F.L., came through with a smashing exhibition triumph last night when they downed the 1958-59 champion Baltimore Colts here, 35-24.

Meredith threw four touchdown passes among 15 completions in 26 attempts for 224 yards.

Baltimore star Johnny Unitas completed 13 of 24 passes for 197 yards and one touchdown but was harassed continually by a strong Dallas line.

The San Francisco 49ers beat the Los Angeles Rams, 38-20, in the other N.F.L. exhibition while the champion Houston Oilers beat the Denver Broncos, 42-10, and the Boston Patriots defeated the Buffalo Bills, 15-12, in American League games.

John Brodie and Bill Kilmer displayed passing and play-directional skill in guiding the 49ers to their victory over the Rams. Brodie was at the T-slot when the 49ers struck for 17-second-period points and a 17-6 halftime lead. Trailing 20-17 in the third quarter, the 49ers won on a pair of payoff pitches by rookie Kilmer, one a 66-yarder to Bernie Casey after the Rams had pulled ahead on Zeke Bratkowski's 45-yard TD pass to Red Phillips and a 73-yard punt return by Jon Arnett.

New Arrivals Hit 'Double'

A newcomer combination of Royal Comet, a gelding shipped here from Arlington Park, and Bill Collier, a jockey arrival from Denver, produced a $73.40 daily double at Fairmount Park last night.

Collier, subbing for the ailing Gene Garcia, rode the three-year-old to its first victory in the second race, returning $16.40 straight. Bill Daly, paying $5, won the first race to set up the double.

Hole in One

A No. 4 iron shot on the third hole at St. Ann Golf Club produced a hole in one for George E. Twillman yesterday.

Atom Tests

tests and they consider lying normal in their activities.

"I have said for a long time we should resume testing," the Senator declared. There is no way of knowing if the Russians had stopped testing, and it is evident they did not."

In London, a British Foreign Office spokesman said the explosion in the atmosphere rather than underground "increases by an amount as yet unknown the danger to health from radioactivity."

The United States announcement was headline news in Europe. The Paris newspaper Combat called the Soviet test "bad faith" and the Paris Jour urged mankind "to unite and make Khrushchev understand his threats will not make slaves of free men."

The Hindustan Times of India said Russia "hopes to blackmail the world into submission to its policies."

Explosion Awaited.

The Soviet decision to resume testing was announced Wednesday night and since that time the President and his advisers awaited an actual explosion. United States planes, ships and land bases scattered around that area of Soviet territory were on the alert for evidence.

In Moscow, the state-controlled press and radio carried statements aimed at justifying the Kremlin's decision to resume testing. But as of this morning, there had been no Soviet announcement of a nuclear explosion.

Meanwhile, the White House concentrated in its public statements on the propaganda aspects of the new situation created by Russia. Officials said they wanted to allow maximum time for the impact of the Soviet decision to make itself felt on governments and peoples outside the Soviet bloc. The judgment here was that the Soviet government was paying a very high price in good will, particularly among neutralist countries, for its decision.

The feeling was that apart from the propaganda consideration, the President should not take any hasty action until the world absorbed the shock of the Soviet decision.

Underground Tests Likely.

Informants said that if and when the United States does start testing again it will confine its explosions of nuclear devices to underground tunnels so that there will be no danger of creating poisonous radioactive materials in the atmosphere. Experts say that underground explosions are adequate for testing weapons devices.

It was learned that the Administration is considering some modification of the secrecy policy covering this country's nuclear weapons arsenal. The purpose would be to give the American people and the world a better idea of the amount of atomic force available to the United States for its own defense and the defense of its allies.

Mr. Kennedy said Thursday, after a meeting with Cabinet officials and congressional leaders, that this country's atomic weapons systems were "wholly adequate" to deal with the policy of "atomic blackmail" which he declared was now being practiced by Russia.

But some of the President's advisers feel that the public, here and abroad, should be given a better idea of the proportions of American strength and the military purposes for which it is designed. Among other objectives, they evidently would like to dramatize and make understandable what they now call Russia's "policy of overkill."

Arthur Dean Comment.

That term was used by Ambassador Arthur H. Dean in a statement at the White House yesterday following a meeting with the President. At the meeting Dean reported on his fruitless negotiation with Russian representatives at Geneva on a nuclear weapons test ban treaty.

The term comes from military sources and means the destruction of human life beyond the limits of military necessity. One of the points which the proposed statement on United States nuclear weapons capacity would bring out is that American bombs had been developed for military purposes and not for maximum destructive capacity apart from military considerations.

Senator Hubert H. Humphrey (Dem.), Minnesota, proposed today that the United States cite Russia's nuclear test before the U.N. as an "act of aggression."

Humphrey, chairman of the Senate disarmament subcommittee, contended that radioactive fallout from the test threatens "many nations and peoples of the world."

Most members of Congress expressed no surprise at the news of a Soviet nuclear explosion.

Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said the Russians obviously had been working for a long time to set up the test and it was "nothing to be surprised at."

"The thing for us to do now is to keep our shirts on," he said.

Mansfield told the Senate, "I can state that we are in extremely good shape—most excellent shape."

Russian Hypocrisy.

Representative Chet Holifield (Dem.), California, chairman of the House-Senate Atomic Energy Committee, said the explosion "proves the hypocrisy of the Soviet negotiators at Geneva and explains the reason why they would not accept any Western proposal for an adequate detection and inspection system to guard against secret testing."

Senator Everett M. Dirksen (Rep.), Illinois, Senate G.O.P. leader, said that "this was not unexpected."

Chairman Clarence Cannon, (Dem.), Mo., of the House Appropriations Committee said the Russian test "indicates that they have reached what they consider superiority in arms and can afford to disregard world opinion."

In Chicago, Adlai E. Stevenson, chief United States delegate to the U.N., said "the hope for disarmament and peace have suffered another blow from the Soviet Union."

Kidnap

whom she had been visiting in Edwardsville, last Aug. 22 because her grandmother, Mrs. Theodore W. Lischmann, 141 Springer avenue, "was always hollering at me." She and Meyer camped near Hooker lake for several days before the string of murders began.

The girl is one of seven children of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Stone, former Edwardsville residents who moved to Chicago two years ago. A large girl who looks older than her years, she told police, "I only have one bad habit. I smoke now and then."

Cut Hair With Razor.

Donna Marie told police that Meyer had cut her normally long hair with a razor blade "to disguise her." However, no effort was made to disguise the automobile stolen at gunpoint from H. P. Graham, landlord of the abducted Miss Wernicker. The car still bore Graham's Illinois license plates when the pair was arrested.

The girl said she and Meyer were on their way to Arizona where they planned to get jobs picking cotton.

In Chicago, the girls parents were stunned when informed Donna Marie had admitted taking part in four murders. Mrs. Stone said they had not permitted the girl to go out on dates because she was too young. She said Donna Marie was afraid of the dark. The girl had developed few friendships since coming to Chicago, Mrs. Stone said.

To Enter Eighth Grade.

Donna Marie is scheduled to enter the eighth grade this month. The family lives in a small cluttered flat in a dilapidated neighborhood.

Meyer and Donna Marie were taken to Howard county jail in Big Spring while murder warrants were being prepared. Federal warrants charging them with kidnaping Miss Wernicker already have been issued in St. Clair county.

Miss Wernicker was abducted from the Graham home Wednesday night.

Graham was dozing in a chair in his yard when he was awakened to find a man pointing a revolver at him. The man ordered Graham into the house. His woman companion entered with them.

Inside, the man ordered Mrs. Graham to fix sandwiches for him and his friend, then told Graham to hand over his automobile keys. He ordered Miss Wernicker into the car, saying he was taking her to make sure Graham would not notify the police until he had had ample time to make good his escape.

Shortly after 9 p.m., about an hour after the kidnapers had invaded the Graham home, Miss Wernicker telephoned Graham from a pay booth in the 800 block of Market street. She said she was still being held by her abductors. She quoted the man as saying he was in trouble in Illinois and was going to drive 50 or 60 miles into Missouri to see his father before surrendering. Graham said he could hear a man's voice in the background.

Graham waited until almost 11 p.m. to notify the St. Clair county sheriff's office. About the time deputies were obtaining a report of the abduction and car theft, other deputies had located the body of Ballard.

They found Ballard's body in weeds by Hooker Lake, near the intersection of U. S. Highway 460 and Illinois Route 13. The lake is just a few blocks from Graham's house.

About 5 o'clock the next morning, Thursday, deputies found the body of Ballard's daughter, Carol, some 60 yards from the place where they had come across his body. Ballard had been shot once in the back of the head with a .22-caliber bullet and his daughter once through the forehead with a .22.

Their hands had been bound behind their backs with plastic clothesline and the girl had been gagged with a handkerchief.

Graham mentioned to deputies that he recognized Miss Wernicker's kidnaper as the man who had appeared at his house Tuesday and asked for kerosene. Graham said he thought the man had been fishing at nearby Hooker lake.

At the lake, investigators found a campsite litered with empty vegetable and fruit jars, blankets, clothing and other items. From one of the jars, Illinois State Police took a fingerprint, and sent it to State Police headquarters at Springfield and FBI headquarters in Washington, D.C. It matched an index fingerprint of Meyer that was in the file.

The descriptions the Grahams gave of the kidnapers were sent by teletype to all police agencies in the metropolitan area. To Edwardsville Police Chief John Hartung the description of the young woman sounded like the description which the Stone girl's grandparents had given when they reported her missing.

The police chief showed Mr. and Mrs. Graham a snapshot of the Stone girl which he had asked her parents to mail to him from Chicago to aid in the search for her. The Grahams said the photograph was that of the young woman who was with the kidnaper.

They identified also a photograph of Meyer which Hartung had obtained after the girl's grandparents said she might have gone off with him. Hartung had established that Meyer was in Edwardsville the day before the Stone girl disappeared, and he had established that Meyer was a friend of the girl's father.

Stone had befriended Meyer about a year ago in Chicago and obtained a job for him. Apparently, Hartung said, when the Stone family came to Edwardsville to visit the Lischmanns, Meyer followed them. The parents returned to Chicago, but the girl stayed on with her grandparents.

With the fingerprint, the photo identification and the connection between the Stone girl and Meyer in hand, the FBI asked for kidnaping warrants.

FREEMAN TO VISIT ASIA, CHECK ON FOOD PROBLEMS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2 (AP) —Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman said yesterday he plans to tour several underdeveloped countries in Asia in October.

The purpose, he told a press conference, is to check on food problems in those countries and the part the United States is playing under its Food for Peace program in helping those countries, and to get ideas on how more assistance might be provided.

Freeman said his trip probably will include Iran, Pakistan, India, Indonesia and the Philippines. He said he would confer with agricultural ministry officials in Tokyo while on the tour. Before returning home, he plans to attend the annual meeting of the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization at Rome.

O'FALLON (ILL.) MAN SHOT TO DEATH BY NEIGHBOR

Jesse Walker, 50-year-old unemployed laborer, was shot to death in the front yard of his home at O'Fallon, Ill., last night by a neighbor.

Police Chief James Tiley of O'Fallon said the neighbor, Lloyd Jeans, admitted shooting Walker with a shotgun he had found in a city dump. The blast struck Walker in the head as he sat in his yard. Jeans said Walker had made disparaging remarks about him.

Both Walker and Jeans were on relief. Police said Jeans, who appeared to have been drinking, refused to sign a statement. He was held without bond.

Cloudy and Thundershowers

—Associated Press Wirephoto.
Low temperatures and areas of precipitation expected tonight.

Considerable cloudiness with showers and thundershowers was forecast for the St. Louis area tomorrow. The outlook for Monday, Labor Day, is for considerable cloudiness and cooler weather, according to the Weather Bureau.

Thunderstorms occurred last night in an area from Iowa into the Great Lakes region. More than an inch of rain fell at Mason City, Ia., and thundershowers were reported in Wyoming, the Dakotas, Montana and the north Atlantic Coast.

Winds swept cool air through the northern Rockies dropping temperatures to the 40s. Readings in the 60s were reported across North Dakota, Minnesota and into the western Great Lakes region. The northern New England states also had readings in the 60s. The northern Pacific Coast had temperatures in the 50s while readings were in the 60s in the southern areas of the Coast. From the Rockies to the Atlantic, temperatures were in the 70s and 80s.

Scattered afternoon and evening showers and thundershowers are likely in Gulf Coast areas and east of the Mississippi Valley. Additional showers and thundershowers are expected from the Plains states eastward into the Great Lakes.

Cooling degree days in the St. Louis area, yesterday, 14; the month, 14; the season, 1064.

Turkish, French Rulers in Algeria

By Ramon Coffman

AFRICA HAS ADDED to the world's troubles during the past several years, and one danger spot is Algeria, the old home of the Barbary pirates.

If we go back to ancient times, we find that the area was under control of the city of Carthage. Then it became a part of the Roman Empire.

Tribes of Vandals crossed a small stretch of water from Italy, and conquered the region we now call Algeria. Many of the residents at that time were members of Berber tribes.

Later came armies of Arabs, sweeping westward across northern Africa. The invaders fastened their Moslem faith on the country.

Spain, Portugal and Turkey waged a long contest for Algeria. At length Turkey became the master, but Turkish rule proved weak.

For 300 years, Algeria was a center of pirates. Fast-sailing vessels left Algerian ports, and attacked peaceful craft of civilized nations, including the United States. That was the time of the Barbary pirates.

A strange event took place during the first half of the past century. It was a war that grew out of a single blow. The Moslem ruler of Algeria fell into a dispute with a French consul, and struck him with a fly-whisk.

That insult caused a long blockade by France. Then a French fleet and a French army arrived, and put an end to Turkish rule.

Algeria became a part of France. Hundreds of thousands of French people went there to live, and the new residents built up cities along the coast.
